The library staff for next semester has been elected, Librarian Genevieve Hardy has announced. Fannie Hawk was elected president, Evelyn Michel, vice-president, and Phyllis Mills, secretary-treasurer. Forum In Round Table

The Student Forum Club sponsored by Mr. Glen Maple, presented a round table discussion on Socialized Medicine at the P. T. A. meeting held in the Little Theater at 2:00 p. m., Wednesday, January 15. Tea was served by members of the SPUR club in the cafeteria following the business meeting.

Ring Orders Taken Now

All students who graduate in 1948 and wish to order senior class rings should place their orders with Mr. Berg of Berg Jewelers at once. Orders will be accepted until January 28.

Mina Miller On Honor Roll

Mina Jean Miller, editor-in-chief of the INTERLUDE last year, was one of sixty-nine students at Illinois college to be named on the college honor roll of the fall term. At the college in Jacksonville she is majoring in English.

Receives War Citations

James Newburn, Jr., an 11A in home room 209, has been informed by the war department that he is a recipient of the Navy Unit Citation for outstanding heroism in the Pacific war area, on the U. S. S. Wasp. Earlier in 1946 he received the Presidential Unit Citation for bravery in an invasion in the Pacific Islands. He is preparing to enter Boston University as a student of Theology and Philosophy.

Movie On Hostels Shown

"Youth Hostels Activities," a movie presented in the auditorium, Friday noon, January 10, explained this relatively new organization, American Youth Hostels. The thrills of traveling are offered to many for a very small cost under the plans of the A. Y. H. People of any age may travel under their own steam of biking, hiking, skiing, canoeing, or horseback riding. The Youth Hostels are simple overnight accommodations for these people. In 1946, there were chartered hostels in 28 states and several foreign countries with more being planned in the future. Any student desiring further information on how to spend a most interesting vacation should go to Mr. Fulwider's guidance office.

BEARS FACE REDSKINS AT GOSHEN FRIDAY

Tomorrow night Central's ram-paging quintet will travel to Goshen, home of the Goshen Redskins, for their third straight conference encounter within a period of one week.

The Redskins record in conference play is but very mediocre with four defeats and no wins on the ledger so far. The Bruins will be gunning to make it five in a row and should not have too much trouble. The victors over Goshen include John Adams, Fort Wayne N. S., Laporte, and Larry Gates who swished in a last second two-hander for a Mishawaka triumph. The Redskins can boast of their holiday tourney victory at Nappanee. Goshen licked well regarded Washington of South Bend to establish a short lived claim to basketball fame.

Back from last year are two regulars Lany Tewallen, and Art Chapman, the teams leading scorer. Two ex-reserves who are now regulars are Ray Rockenbaugh and Sonny Brooks. Up from the "B" team is Don Robinson who is the other starting forward along with Tewallen. Chapman is center and Rockenbaugh and Brooks are the guards.

COUNCIL GETS VOTING MACHINE

A voting machine has been secured from the County by the Student Council for their next all-school election next spring. All students voting in the election will have an opportunity to use the same type of machine used by adult voters in the general elections. The student council has decided that the council will meet every week from now on, instead of every other week. The Council is turning its attention at the present to a code of conduct written by the students consisting of rules of conduct that they would like to see carried out at Central.

Central 4th In Seal Sale

Central ranked fourth in the contributions from the Christmas Seal sales turned in by the five city high schools. Total sales turned in and recorded from Central amounted to $467.51 and although the figure represents the most taken in by any high school, the average contribution per student, which was 19 cents, set a fourth place rating. High school placements were in the order following: Central Catholic, John Adams, Riley, Central, and Washington.

"Home rooms 115 and 101 are to be highly commended for their excellent job in the seal sale. Both rooms earned a fifteen dollar bond while four rooms earned no bonds, thirteen earned ten dollar bonds, and thirty-five received five dollars bonds," Miss Emma Pfaffman, was chairman of the sale at Central, commented.

EXTENSION PREPARES FOR NEXT SEMESTER

South Bend - Mishawaka Indiana University Extension Center has announced that registration for the second semester begins January 27 through February 8. New students, not taking extension courses now, are asked to register between February 3 and February 8. Classes begin on February 10.

Anyone planning to enter the school and desiring counsel about their program should go to the extension office in room 220 at Central. Bulletins are now obtainable, explaining courses offered and the nature of the extension school. Information concerning the education series sponsored by Indiana University and open to adults, I. U. extension students, and high school students, is available at the office.

Veterans are asked to have their records cleared before registering and also, if possible, to stop in at the office before the regular registration date.

Typing Classes Busy

As the semester ends it is possible to walk by Room 210 and hear the impatient click of the many typewriters. Everyone trying desperately to get in work which has been put off or that which just kept piling up from those many "illegal" absences. No more of that asdf or ;lkj that's completely elementary now. Now the work is for speed. Faster! Faster! As we come into class we hear, ready; (fingers tighten). Get set; (backs straighten). Go—with that there is a resounding clatter. A fury of competition heats the room. For five minutes there is a monotonous roar of what seems to be just noise. Then "Stop!" and the mechanical writers come to a halting stop. A sigh of relief is heard, then a minute of conscientious figuring. As the bell rings, bedraggled students file out of the class, their nerves worn to a frazzle, their muscles aching, all their hopes built on a good grade, providing a mistake isn't found, their arithmetic is right, and someone does not mislay their test.

COMBINED COMMENCEMENT HELD AT CENTRAL

Central has bid farewell to the one hundred sixteen students of the January 1947 graduating class. The past week, a memorable one for the seniors, came to a close Wednesday night, January 15 as the graduates received their diplomas during Commencement held in the Central auditorium. Last Friday, their Cap and Gown Day, the graduates gathered for the last time as a class when the faculty entertained them at a social hour, held in the school lunch room from 3:30 to 4:30 p. m.

Baccalaureate, the traditional service for graduating seniors in the four city high schools was held in the Central auditorium, Sunday, January 12, at four o'clock. Dr. William E. Clark, pastor of the First Methodist church, delivered the sermon on "Citizens of a New World." The invocation and a prayer were given by Reverend Paul Rasche, pastor of the St. Peter's Evangelical and Reformed church. Twenty-five voices of glee club members were contributed by each of the four schools and joined in a mass choir to sing "Immortal Invisible," by Thiman; "The Twenty-Third Psalm," arranged by Gordon-Jacob, and the "Sevenfold Amen."

Dr. William G. Spencer, president of Franklin College, presented the main address, "Unto Him That Hath," at Commencement held at Central Wednesday night, January 15. Introducing the speaker was Fred Helmen, president of the Board of Education. Reverend Carl Bosse, pastor of the River Park Methodist church, gave the invocation. Two numbers sung by the combined choir ending the Commencement exercises were "Almighty God of Our Fathers" by Will James and "One World" by O'Hara-Bratton. A Rhythmelodic Sketch was presented by the combined school orchestras under the direction of Geo. Dasch followed by the presentation of diplomas by members of the school board.

C. M. Reiley Describes Northwestern University

Mr. C. M. Reiley, director of admission at Northwestern University, spoke on January 10 to a dozen Central students who plan to enter the University. One of the points stressed by Mr. Reiley was that college will be crowded for several years to come, and admission of new students will depend largely on the high standing of their previous school records.

CONGRATULATIONS, GRADUATES!

Congratulations to all the graduating seniors! There is nothing to compare with the pride of achievement that you must feel to- day. Central is proud of you and sorry to lose a fine group of stu- dents. We wish you good luck and give to you our sincerest hope for your success in the future.

AND GOOD LUCK ALWAYS!

Another group of seniors is graduating from Central. We who are left will miss these students; it will not be the same without them. But our parting wish for the seniors is that they will achieve success in whatever they undertake. It is with great pride that we send them into the world which offers so many opportunities.

They are looking hopefully toward the long road ahead. We know that by taking advantage of their opportunities and by hard work they are sure to succeed in whatever field they may choose. May our wish of good luck be with them always!!!

HELP THE NEW SOPHS

A new semester is about to begin and as usual we find that there will be within our shelter many people who have not been here as students before. These incoming students will bring the future laurels and fame to Central. The older, more experienced students should not overlook these "junior partners" but should help them to get a quick start, readily make their orientation, and become progressive students. Maybe some of you remember how shy and bashful you were in your soph year. Some thought there was no place for them but by the time they had become seniors they regretted the time that had been wasted getting started. We appeal to you, the students of Central High School, to take the Sophs under your wing and give them a gentle push at early success.

"I RESOLVE TO STUDY"

Did you make any New Year's resolutions? A good one for all of us to make would be; "I resolve to study conscientiously in the coming semester and make the best possible use of my time." A whole new year awaits us to either fail or come out with more valu- able knowledge and the satisfaction of work well done. Many stu- dents have taken to "sliding" through a course merely to graduate; but when it is not backed up by actual achievement in learning, it will not go far in making your future life successful. Maybe you're not planning to go to college, but still in this day and age a person needs more than just "readin', 'ritin' and 'rithmetic" to get along in the world. Perhaps you are merely sitting through a course because it is required. This is the wrong attitude. A course that is required by your school for graduation is bound to be one which is essential to good citizenship and a better living outside of school.

Maybe you didn't like your report card. There is just one person responsible for those grades, and that is you.

The whole thing, success or failure, is on the basis of how you apply yourself to the necessary tasks of life. Apply yourself to your studies in high school and be well prepared for the future. Be sure to start out the new year right!

LOOK RECORD REVIEW

TOPS IN WAX—Stan Kenton and Harry James both share honors for the current outstand- ing albums.

KENTON: Artistry In Rhythm.
JAMES: All Time Favorites. In Stan's album of four 10-inch discs, he climaxes over five years of effort to albumize his distinctive and original music. He offers eight sterling sides, all originals, never before recorded and each based upon his Artistry Theme. Among the titles he features famous Kenton sidemen — Safranski, written for the bass- ist and rhythmic spark-plug of the band, Eddie Safranski; Artistry In Percussion, features his new drumming sensation, Shelly Manne (of the pre-war Bobby Byrne band); Fantasy— with solos by Vido Musso, tenor, and Boots Mussulli, alto; and a bit of Debussy in Willow Weep For Me — some choice warbling by June Christy and tromboning by Kai Winding (Capitol). The James album in- cludes those scarce collector's items—Concerto For Trumpet, Flight Of The Bumble Bee, and One and Two O'Clock Jumps. The balance of the eight sides include such as Sleepy Lagoon and You Made Me Love You. All discs are selected from the great James productions that stand as milestones marking his climb to fame (Columbia).

DANCE—Dance records this month fall into a relaxed vein with Tex Beneke and The Mil- ler band lead- ing off with the immortal Carmichael opus — Star- dust, and backing it with Falling Leaves. Both instrumentals receive the same arrang- ing care that Tex consistently uses to capture the attention of audiences and record buyers, and retain the same high stand- ards he has set and maintained since the inception of the re- organized band (RCA Victor). Another Victor offering is their dynamic star, Desi Arnez, who with band plays a bolero—I'll Never Love Again (with Elsa Miranda vocal), and an instru- mental, Tia Juana. Gene Krupa, of the frantic stick-licks, has a highly listenable pairing in There Is No Breeze and Aren't You Kind Of Glad We Did? Carolyn Grey sings on both, and on the latter she is joined by Buddy Stewart (Columbia). Capitol's great staff band, Paul Weston, pair Matt Dennis in vocals of So Would I and At Sundown, a favorite of the '20's. Charlie Spivak leaves his "Sweetest Trumpet" in the case except for a short warm-up, and the band makes an instru- mental pairing of Stomping Room Only and Let's Go Home (RCA Victor).

Still going strong: Sue Bain and Ed Grunawalt, Catherine Megan and Dick Westrom.

Did everyone see Bobbie Mahler and her husband last week?

They say that MacLean is on the loose again.

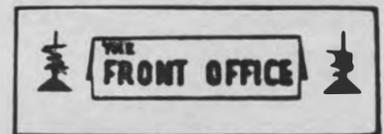

Wasn't it grand seeing the college kids once again?

Verie hopes you all got A's on your report cards. (Sure we did.)

Some mighty happy gals were Runbom, Casey, and Barber when Bob Nitz, Dewey Welch, and Bobby Stansbury got home.

Treasured Christmas gifts from him to her:

BE YOUR BEST

"I have myself and that's enough for anybody," said a little girl who was being questioned about what she had for Christmas. A great truth! What we are, measures our worth to ourselves and to others. Not money, or fame, or power; but sincerity, joy in life, intelligence, friendliness, resourcefulness, strength of purpose, grown manners, beauty of spirit, gener- osity, dependability, helpfulness, and nobility of conduct — these are the real measures of what one is.

These qualities can be cultivated. They point the way toward the good life open to all who appreciate the worth of themselves and who keep their minds on the things that count most. One who makes up his mind to take charge of his own life and works at personal improvement, has found the secret of making his life worth- while.

Determine to be at your best. Make the year, 1947, the best year of your life.

Hear ye, hear ye, students of Cen- tral. Gather 'round while we intro- duce to you this week a charming miss whom Central proudly claims her own. She's Fannie Hawk, a senior B of home room 217. Fannie is 5' 4", has blonde hair, blue eyes and always has a friendly smile for some- one.

In addition to her studies, Fannie holds the office of President of CIRO, Treasurer of the Amigos, is on the INTERLUDE Staff, Library Staff, Honor Roll, Debate Team, and in the Glee Club.

Topping her list of "what I like" are blue, tennis, long hair, Swiss steak, hot fudge sundaes, music, and the songs "The Old Lamplighter" and "Polonaise."

When asked what she disliked, Fannie said, onions, ham, flashy col- ors, biology, and Spike Jones.

Fannie plans to study journalism after graduation in May. We know that with her pleasant manner she will be a success in anything.

Verie Sauer Says:

It looks as though Norma Schlundt is just what the doctor ordered for Jim Brademas.

When you see Pat Miller walking down the hall or down the street, who do you see at her side? Why, none other than Bruce Beck.

We hear that Pat Campbell is com- ing back. Welcome back, Pat.

Barbara Palmiter had a prosperous Christmas: a pair of R. A. F. wings and an I. D. bracelet. Hmmm!

Louise Cebulski and Bill Roberts. A darn cute couple.

Jack Morrical is mighty interested in that little cheerleader Mary Ann Sutherlin.

By putting the hardwood ability of three second stringers to good use, the Central Bears were able to gain their third straight conference victory at the expense of the quintet from over Nappanee way, 64-39, last Friday night in the John Adams gym. Between these three impressive reserves, Flowers, Santa and Hagerty, nineteen points were accounted for.

Gene Ring copped the high point honors with twenty-one points and was followed closely by fellow teammate Ernie Bond who racked up seventeen points during the fracas. The nearest that Nappanee could come to these two was the thirteen points of their high scoring guard, Hershberger.

Central got off to a fast start over their ruckless foe, who had dropped their previous four tilts, by rolling up a 16 to 9 advantage going into the second period. Nappanee slowly whittled down this lead till they trailed only by five points at half-time.

The last half saw the Bruins move in high gear leaving their opponents far behind and at last count the final score stood, Central 64, Nappanee 39.

BEAR FACTS

Winter sports at Central are under full speed now with the basketball, swimming, and wrestling teams all in action. Swimming and basketball were kept alive all during the war years, but wrestling was a casualty of those dark days and has now been revived with the return to duty of Coach Jones. Jones is working with freshmen and sophomores mainly, hoping to thus build up a seasoned squad in the next year or two. The coach openly announces that we can expect little from this year's squad. The boys entertained Roosevelt of East Chicago last Friday afternoon and suffered a 56-0 mauling. Coach Clarence Elbel's swimmers should do well this year in spite of the tough schedule ahead. The team is built around four returning lettermen. In Bill Mitchell the Bears have this year's diving champ, barring unforeseen events. With Parshall and Captain Cooper, Coach Elbel has two of the better backstrokers in this part of the state, while Parshall is tops in the 40-yard free style. Other swimmers competing this year are Berta, McCaffery, Guenther, Van Arsdol, Jordan, Noell, Scannell, Peterson, and Tom Smith.

The Bruin B team basketball squad scored their first victory of the new year when they won a rousing 29-21 victory over an out-classed, but not out-fought, Nappanee five in a game played last Friday at John Adams.

The Bears got away to a 12-4 lead in the first quarter, and held their smaller opponents off the rest of the way. Nappanee moved to a 15-9 half-time count, but did not have the necessary scoring punch to pull into the lead. John Davis led the scoring for Central with 15 points.

Just before the holiday vacation began, the B team ran into two tough games. John Adams, led by the Trux twins, defeated the Bears 11-18 on December 20. The following night the Bruins lost a decision to Jefferson of Lafayette, 36-24.

In the first round of action in the Smilers intramural Basketball Elimination Tournament, two teams were victorious by topheavy scores while the other game was a little closer contest. The Four Stars slaughtered the Bombers 72 to 4 while the Globetrotters were scalping the Jr. Waltons 48-7. The Seven Feathers eliminated the Sharpshooters, 20-11.

Cubskin's secret ambition is to have the Bruin basketball team thoroughly rap the Elkhart squad when they come here for a conference game on February 7th.

Thanks to the Smilers for the swimming and wrestling schedules. These minor sports need all the boosting they can get. This goes for track, tennis, baseball, and the basketball and football "B" teams.

Cubskin's predictions for the first after-vacation period:

- Central over Goshen (c).
- Gary Tollesto over Wash. S. B.
- Laporte over Riley.
- Elkhart over Riley.
- Mishawaka over Elkhart
- Mishawaka over Ft. Wayne N. S.
- Michigan City over Nappanee.

At the last count Central was still ranked as the third best high school basketball quint in the state. This is a great honor, and a well deserved one, I might add.

Bears Lose Swim Meet

Central's tankers were vanquished in their first two swimming meets, 44-22 and 46-20, by Gary Horace Mann and Hammond High respectively. Swimming in their first meet of the year against Mann, the Bruins captured two firsts, three seconds, and three thirds. Parshall and Mitchell were the only first place winners for the Bruins, securing their honors in the 100-yard backstroke and diving respectively. The three second places were copped by Berta in the 100-yard free style, Parshall in the 40-yard free style and Capt. Cooper, the backstroke.

New 10B's will be assigned to the following home rooms: Mrs. Bartlett-30, Mr. Elbel-11, Miss Gienand-320, and Mr. Trottnow-312. Miss Crepeau, in room 311, will sponsor the 8B class.

Hammond High's conference runners-up, allowed the Bears only one first, four seconds, and three thirds. Parshall and Cooper were as usual first and second in the backstroke, respectively, as they have been for every meet in the last two years except for three times last year against Horace Mann. Guenther, McCaffery, and Berta took second places in the 40, 220 and 100 free style, respectively. The Bears are on the road Friday headed for Kalamazoo for a tank encounter with the "I got a gal in K—" swimmers.

Central 42, Riley 24

Central handed the Riley five their second drubbing of the current season at the Adams gym Tuesday night by a score of 42-24. The outcome of the contest was not in doubt at any time. Score by quarters:

Central	7	21	29	42
Riley	6	13	17	24

Lillian Vince and Henry Kruszewski really have a swell time in typing class.

Auntie would like to hear more about the Lonely Hearts Club.

Has everyone noticed the I.D. bracelet Carol Geier got during the holidays?

Your Aunt Verie would sure like to know who gave that neat locket to Lorraine Norris.

Whee!! This makes your ol' Auntie happy. Janice Fries and Bart Woodard.

All's smooth sailing when Marilyn Lachot and Clyde Williams get together.

Auntie's vote for the cutest couples: Rick Edwards and Marilyn Reid. Chuck Hurwich and Claytene Merley.

Does this rumor lie or are Floyd Burton and Joan Larimer on the wagon again?

Hear tell that some of the kids got together and decided that Pat Kelly and Jim Horning would make the ideal couple.

Have Janie Crowe and Tom Lane (Adams) hit the rocks?

Good deal: Helmick and Beal.

Tippett: Lets cut Spanish today. Buppert: Cant. I need the sleep.
