PREPARE FOR MATH FINALS AT I. U.

Results of the state sectional mathematics contest held April 5 have been announced by Mr. Willmore, head of the Central Mathematics department. On the list of students ranking in the upper thirty-one per cent of their respective divisions, Central placed seven people. Gaining recognition in the comprehensive division were Alan Haber, Howard Johnson, and Robert Pendl. In the geometry field were John Kasuk and Suzanne Bain with Doris Harrington and Richard Mathews gaining placement in the algebra division. Of these people, Haber, Johnson, Kasuk and Harrington received certificates for extra meritorious work done in the contest.

This Saturday, April 26, the students who ranked in the sectional competition will go to Indiana University at Bloomington to compete in the final state tests. Last year Alan Haber tied for first place in the state geometry division and Joan Gadowski of Central ranked seventh in the state.
