

Maroons Slow Alton's Potent Offense, 6-6

By DON PIARSKI

 Who said football wasn't a game of inches?
 Two inches is all that separated Alton High School from a victory Saturday afternoon at Public School Stadium before an estimated 5,600 fans.
 The score was 6-6 when Alton lined up for the extra point against Belleville West in the pivotal game in the Southwestern Conference. The clock on the east end of the field showed 4:05 remaining.

Mike Jeffries carefully eyed the post where the ball would be placed. It was snapped, the holder, placed the ball and Jeffries swung his foot.
 The kick was high enough, long enough but, unfortunately, not true enough. The ball struck the right post and bounced back. Two inches to the left and it would have gone through.
 "That's the way it ended — 6-6."
 "It's like kissing your sister," said a disappointed Ed Yonkus, Alton coach.

Belleville West came to town with a 6-1 record and a reputation as a tough defensive team. The Maroons proved it. They held the Redbirds in check except for one long drive in the fourth quarter that brought on the deadlock. This, against a team that had averaged 42.7 points per game.
 Alton was not flat. It merely ran into a fired-up team that has not lost to the Redbirds since 1960.
 Belleville played control football, punching out three and four yards a clip and relied on a glib defense to stymie the speedier, but contained Redbirds.

 "That was our game plan," said Belleville coach Bob Samples. "I told the kids Alton would get their yards and we probably wouldn't be able to shut them out, but I also told them to be tough on defense, to go out and hit them."
 And, his players followed directions perfectly. True, the Maroons didn't shut out the Redbirds and they didn't completely stop the Redbird running game, but they had just enough defense to stop Alton when the home forces threatened.

 The tie stopped the Redbirds' all-winning streak at six but still kept their unbeaten string intact as they headed into a Friday night Southwestern Conference contest at Collinsville.
 Alton shows a 3-0-1 record in the conference to 2-0-1 for Belleville.
 The game had its thrills even with only two touchdowns scored.

The most dramatic moments came in the last minute of play. Belleville was on its own 40 when quarterback John Bunch went to the air in a desperate attempt to break the tie. He lofted a high one but defensive halfback Ed Morris, who played a superb game, stole his second Bunch aerial and returned it 24 yards to the Belleville 25.
 There were 31 seconds remaining and Alton had one timeout left. Jeffries went around left end for 10 yards, and was shoved out of bounds. The clock showed 13 seconds. As the two teams lined up, the clock began ticking away. The Alton bench screamed at the officials. Referee Babe Champion of Granite City heard them, looked at the clock, waved frantically at the timekeeper and finally got the clock stopped.

 Five seconds had elapsed. The officials went into a huddle. Both benches were notified there were 13 seconds officially left.

With the confusion straightened out, play was resumed. Halfback Larry Bosaw rammed into the line for a yard. Alton quickly called for a timeout. Now, there were eight seconds left.
 Jeffries trotted to the sidelines where he and Yonkus talked.
 Play resumed and Alton went for the field goal. It was a 33-yard try. The kick was long enough, high enough but barely wide to the right.

Belleville had time for one more play; Bunch was smeared for an 11-yard loss.
 "We had our chances early," said Yonkus, "but we got started too late. If we had picked it up like we should have, it would have been a different game. We got lousy field position. Belleville doesn't get riled, rattled and shaken. They've got the smarts."
 Belleville did punt to Wilson. But, the Maroons covered well under Bunch's short but high kicks. Wilson fielded only two punts and wound up with minus 14 yards.
 Still, the little speedster got Alton's only touchdown — his 18th of the season — and gained 62 yards in 13 carries for a 4.8 average. Halfback Rich Caravia, like Bunch, a junior, was the workhorse for the Maroons. He carried 24 times and gained 113 yards for 4.7 per try.
 Alton had a chance in the first quarter. Morris swiped his first pass on the Belleville 41. The Redbirds began to roll. Fullback Don Sackman got 34, then Wilson 13. A 13-yard pass from Jeffries to Bosaw on fourth down moved to the Maroons' 24.
 The going got sticky. A clipping penalty put Alton back to the Belleville 29 on Jeffries' good run to the 10. Wilson lost two but then a fourth down, 11-yard pass to Randy Bailey was six yards short of first down.
 Alton began another march that spanned the first and second quarters. It started from the Redbird 13. Wilson ripped off 17 and the Redbirds reached the Belleville 42 where a yard was needed on third down for a first down.
 Jeffries tried a pass to Bailey that just did miss connections against the bunched-up and surprised Maroons.
 "I called that play," said Yonkus. "I thought it would work with them looking for a running play. It almost did."
 On fourth down, Jeffries faked a pitchout and kept. But, he didn't make the yard.
 That gave the Maroons life. They pecked away at the Alton line with Caravia carrying nine of the next 11 plays to the Alton eight. There, Bunch fooled the Redbirds on first down with pass to right end Ed Merten for the touchdown.
 Mark Clark's kick for the point was wide to the right and seemed unimportant at the time with the Maroons ahead 6-0 at halftime.

Spartans Surprise Notre Dame, 21-17

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
 Who says statistics tell the story? Certainly not Ara Parseghian.
 "That's meaningless," he said after his fifth-ranked Notre Dame football team outgained Michigan State 455 yards to 247 but still came out a 21-17 loser in the weekend's biggest upset.
 Notre Dame was the foremost of the nation's Top Twenty teams to taste defeat Saturday. Other losers were ninth-ranked Miami, Fla., 10th-ranked Syracuse, No. 17 Mississippi and Texas Tech, No. 19. Florida, ranked 15th, was held to a 14-14 tie by Vanderbilt.

 Top-rated Southern California had the weekend off but the next three teams came through, although second-ranked Ohio State needed a four-yard touchdown pass from Ron Maciejowski to Jim Otis with 2 1/2 minutes left to edge winless Illinois 31-24. Kansas No. 3, clobbered Iowa State 46-25 while No. 4 Penn State drubbed Boston College 29-0.
 Sixth-ranked Tennessee was idle, No. 7 Purdue crushed Iowa 44-14, and eighth-rated Georgia belted Kentucky 35-14. Upstart Auburn mauled Miami, Fla., 31-6 behind Loran Carter's passing while Syracuse fell to 11th-ranked California 43-0. The Orangemen lost three fumbles and had six passes intercepted.
 Michigan, ranked 12th, remained in a tie with Ohio State for the Big Ten lead, by downing Minnesota 33-20. Chris Gilbert set a Southwest Conference career rushing record and led 13th-ranked Texas by Rice 38-14. Missouri had no trouble bombing Kansas State 56-20 to remain tied with Kansas in the Big Eight.

 Arkansas, No. 16, held off North Texas State 17-15. Houston routed 17th-ranked Mississippi 29-7. Louisiana State, No. 18, nipped Texas Christian 10-7. Southern Methodist's Church Hixson, Jerry Levas and Bickley Lesser outpassed and out-kicked No. 19 Texas Tech 39-13 to take the Southwest Conference lead and Florida State, No. 20, outlasted South Carolina 35-28 on the strength of Ron Sellers' four touchdown catches.
 "I don't know when I've been more pleased with a team," smiled Duffy Daugherty of Michigan State after upsetting Notre Dame. "I don't know when I've seen a team fight harder. I don't know when I've seen a team rally like that after it looked like our great effort went for naught."
 Tommy Love, who opened the scoring in the first period with an 11-yard run, closed it by bursting over from a yard out in the third quarter after Notre Dame had taken a 17-14 lead. Then, State's goal-line stand held Notre Dame on the MSU one in the final minute.

 Love's first TD capped a 42-yard drive after the Spartans surprised the Irish with an on-side kickoff to start the game and recovered it. Daugherty warned Friday night that he might pull such a stunt and said later, "Most of the time people don't take me seriously."
 Parseghian did. "We talked to the team about it as we went out and they still were stupid," he said. "It was not a surprise. We even shouted about it from the sidelines."
 Parseghian also was upset by the officials' failure to call what he thought was pass interference on an end zone pass from Terry Hanratty to Jim Seymour in the late going.
 "He (Seymour) was out-and-out tackled before the ball got there," Parseghian said.
 And the weekend saw the foot come still further back into football. Stefan Schroder of Pacific kicked field goals of 25, 31 and 59 yards in a 31-0, SMU's Lesser had a pair of 53-yarders and a 41-yarder against Texas Tech while California's Ron Miller booted for 50, 30 and 37 yards against Syracuse.

TOUCHDOWN — End Ed Merten (81) of Belleville West reaches up for a touchdown pass from quarterback John Bunch in the second quarter as Alton's Mike Grady (10) and linebacker Jim Moore (67) come up too late.

Extra Point Wins Game For Salukis

DES MOINES, Ia. — Southern Illinois University scored a touchdown in the final quarter to edge Drake here Saturday in a football contest, 21-20.
 Rogan Kuba ran six yards for the winning TD with five minutes and 16 seconds left in the game and Mike Bradley kicked the decisive point.
 It marked the Salukis' third triumph in five starts.
 Two second-quarter field goals by Bob Chase put Drake ahead 6-0, and the Bulldogs added to their lead when Duane Miller scored on a 64-yard punt return.
 Bradley ran 10 yards for SIU's first touchdown in the third period, capped by a point-after kick by Chase. A few minutes later Doug Hollinger of the Salukis scored on a 66-yard punt return. Bradley kicked both points.
 Bob Misner scored late in the third quarter for Drake on a 16-yard run which, capped by Chase's point-after kick, gave Drake a 20-14 edge.
 Kuba, who scored the winning TD for SIU, was playing his first game since being injured in his school's opener. He is from Staunton.

Marquette No Match For Augustinian, 25-0

By BOB HERTZ
Telegraph Sports Writer
ST. LOUIS — The Marquette Explorers, trying to salvage a win in the Bi-State Conference (this year, fell) at the hands of the Fighting Braves of Augustinian, 25-0, Sunday afternoon at Roosevelt Stadium.
 On a cold, windy and almost rainy day, the home forces found no trouble putting Marquette in its place by scoring in the first quarter and not allowing the Explorers to even come close.

 With 5:23 left in the first quarter, the Braves scored. John Laughlin, inheriting the punting chores for Marquette in place of Jim Schmidt, who was injured in a B-team game early in the week, punted from Marquette's five. Fred Gerhardt fielded it on the Explorer 27 and ran it to the 19.
 After a 15-yard penalty on Augustinian back to the 30, Tim McDonough hit Joe Serati with a pass to the right side for the first TD.
 Augustinian took the ball following a Laughlin punt on the Explorer 23 in the second quarter and eight plays later McDonough went over from one yard out for the score.
 Marquette was down at the half, 12-0.
 Although the third quarter was scoreless, this was the period that found Marquette deepest in Augustinian territory. The Explorers, crossing midfield only three times for the day, got to the Braves' 31 where they ran out of downs.
 Augustinian didn't waste any time scoring in the fourth period. With only 1:43 elapsed, Randy Palublak went up the middle from two yards out for the score. John Swederski, a soccer kicker, booted the extra point and the Braves led 19-0.

 They came back near the end for their final score. With 1:40 remaining, Tony Gillick hit Palublak with a 20-yard aerial for the score.
 Marquette's offense was just as weak as its defense. The Explorers managed only three first downs to 12 for Augustinian, 22 yards on the ground and 51 in the air for a mere total of 73 yards.
 The game was hampered by a rash of penalties. Augustinian was caught for 100 yards and Marquette for 75.
 Augustinian is now 1-2-1 in the Bi-State Conference. Marquette is in last place with an 0-3 record.
 Marquette is on the road Saturday night playing another Bi-State foe in Belleville Althoff. Game time is 8 o'clock.

Colts Surprise Rams With Sound Offense

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
 The Forgotten Five Plus One isn't a Dixieland band, just some offensive linemen whose play sounded a happy note for the Baltimore Colts in the National Football League.
 "The only time our offensive line gets publicized is when we face the Rams or when we break down on a play," tackle Sam Ball said Sunday after he and his mates sparked the Colts to a 27-10 victory over Los Angeles.
 Baltimore now is tied at 6-1 with the Rams for first place in the Coastal Division.
 In a key game tonight, the struggling Green Bay Packers, bidding for a fourth straight NFL title, meet the Cowboys in Dallas.

A victory would move the Packers, 2-3-1, into a first-place tie with Detroit in the Central Division. A loss will leave them in last place. Dallas will be gunning for a 7-0 record and for a measure of revenge against the Packers, who have beaten them in the last two league championship games.
 Elsewhere in the NFL Sunday, San Francisco, 4-3, upset Detroit, 3-3-1, 14-7; Chicago, 3-4, surprised Minnesota, 3-4, 26-24; St. Louis, 4-3, beat New Orleans, 3-4, 31-17; Cleveland, 4-3, trounced Atlanta, 1-6, 39-7; the New York Giants, 5-2, edged Washington, 3-4, 13-10; and Pittsburgh, 1-6, topped Philadelphia, 0-7, 3-0.
 Baltimore's defense was brilliant against Los Angeles, but the Colts' six interior offensive linemen, including two centers, outplaying the Rams' vaunted front four that paved the way for the victory.
 Earl Morrall passed for two touchdowns and ran for another as the Colts built up a 20-3 halftime lead.
 End Dick Witcher picked up a fumble by teammate Gary Lewis and ran 12 yards for San Francisco's winning fourth-period touchdown against Detroit.
 Chicago moved into a second-place deadlock with Minnesota in the Central when Mac Perc-val kicked his fourth field goal of the game, a 47-yard boot, with three seconds left. Percival now has kicked nine field goals without a miss in the last two games.

 St. Louis exploded for 21 points in the last quarter to remain in a first-place tie with Cleveland in the Century Division and drop New Orleans into third. Jim Hart's 53-yard touchdown pass to Dave Williams broke a 17-17 tie for St. Louis.
 Leroy Kelly ran for two touchdowns and Bill Nelsen passed for another in Cleveland's romp over Atlanta.
 The Giants, second to Dallas in the Capitol Division, launched an 80-yard touchdown drive in the fourth quarter to beat Washington. Tucker Frederickson scored the winner on a one-yard plunge.
 Pittsburgh gained its first victory and kept Philadelphia winless by taking advantage of an Eagle game that failed. Philadelphia tried for a first-down on its own 10-yard-line with less than a yard to go and less than a minute left. Pittsburgh stopped the attempt and then won on Booth Lusteg's 15-yard field goal.

Packers Meet Dallas Tonight

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas and Green Bay—rivals in the last two National Football League title games—collide tonight before a national television audience and a sellout crowd.
 The battle means survival for the Packers and pride for the Cowboys.
 The Packers are struggling to stay alive in the Central Division with a 2-3-1 record and sorely need the victory in their quest for a fourth consecutive NFL crown.
 Dallas, sailing along with a 6-0 mark in the Capitol Division, needs the game psychologically. The Cowboys have never beaten the Packers in three regular season and two championship games.
 Cowboy Coach Tom Landry, who has seen his team defeated by the world champions the past two seasons in the closing moments of the NFL title games, said: "The game means a lot to us psychologically."

"A loss to the Packers takes something out of you that would be hard to replace."
 After the 21-17 loss to Green Bay in the final 13 seconds in sub-zero cold last December, Landry launched on a campaign of what he called "mental toughness."
 He has preached the theme to the team throughout the season.
 "Get tougher when the going gets tougher," says Landry.
 The game tonight, before 72,000 in the Cotton Bowl, will provide a stern test of whether Dallas has overcome its Green Bay phobia—folding in the last crucial minutes.
 Game time is 9:30 p.m., EST, and will be televised by CBS.
 Green Bay is having injury problems although Bart Starr, who pulled a muscle in his arm last week, is expected to be ready at his quarterback post. Guard Jerry Kramer is a doubtful performer.

Prin Wins, 8-1
ELSAIL, Ill. — Principia College defeated the University of Chicago, 8-1, in a soccer match played here Saturday.
 Ted Bayless led the winners with three goals and Rudolf Losche had a pair.
 "The victory made Principia's record 3-5 for the season."
