Class Day Program Presented May 19

The annual senior class day program was presented Friday, May 19 at 10:00 in the Washington-Clay Gym.

A chorus of 30 girls sang "School Days" with a solo by Carol Thomas. Carolyn Squint and Beatrice Sowers sang "My Buddy". Beatrice also sang "Blue Moon" with Cristine Zurat. Dick Wisner sang a solo, "The Ghost and Honest Joe." Bonnie Weller performed gymnastics.

Carolyn Squint read the Class Will; Herman Reed the Class Prophecy.

Velma Rogers presented each of the senior sponsors, Mr. Robert Mathioudakis, Miss Dagny Lenon, and Mrs. Sarah Schultz with a gift.

Velma Rogers and Charles Coussens were presented with Etiquette Club awards for leadership, cooperation, and character by Beatrice Sowers.

Marilyn Barnhart, Mildred Grabowski, Beverly Martin, Marilyn Sellers, Martha Singer, Carol Thomas, Rosemary Kelley, and Margaret Barrett were awarded pins for outstanding work on the Annual Staff.

Mr. Harke presented certificates for scholarships to Douglas Roth (Purdue) and Ann Kreps (Indiana).

REV. F. P. GOODALL TO DELIVER BACCALAUREATE SERMON

The eighteenth annual baccalaureate ceremony for graduating seniors will be held May 28th, in the Washington-Clay High School gymnasium.

The program will start at 2:30 p.m. with a processional by the high school band. Rev. T. M. Ferrell, Minister of the Morning Star Church of God, will give the invocation. Beatrice Sowers and Carolyn Squint will sing, "In The Garden." The high school chorus will sing, "This is My Father's House" and "My God and I". The main address will be delivered by Rev. F. P. Goodall, Minister of Christ the King Church.

The motto of the senior class this year is "A New Decade—A New Life"; the class flower is the American Beauty Rose; and the class colors are blue and white.

DICK HARPER TO BE HOSPITALIZED

Dick Harper, who showed promising ability during the last basketball season, will go to the hospital this summer for an operation. It seems Dick has had trouble with varicose veins, but after the operation he should be back on his feet within a short time. We're all pulling for you, Dick! Get well fast!

Winners Awarded In Reading Contest

A committee, composed of the English teachers of the Washington-Clay Junior-Senior High School and the librarian, selected a winner in each of the five classes participating in the reading contest. The committee consisted of Mrs. Barber, Miss Hupenbecker, Miss Walters, Miss Hoover, Mrs. Sellers, and Mr. Rogers.

Each student kept a record of the books he had read during the school year in a booklet entitled "My Reading Design". In the booklet there is a wheel divided into four sections—Social Science, Effective Living, Natural Science, and Special Types of Literature. Each big division is sub-divided into specific fields, aiding the student to find material.

The contestant was judged on the value of the books read, the reading balance in the four major fields, and the number of books read.

The winners were Gene Long, grade 7; Mary Louise Richards, grade 8; Patsy Bliss, grade 9; Richard Ceerle, grade 10; and Dolores Vexel, grade 11.

8th GRADE CLASS PARTY HELD

The 8th grade class held its annual party Wednesday, May 24, at Washington-Clay. Entertainment included softball, two boys' teams and two girls' teams, movies, and games. Refreshments consisted of weiners and buns, potato chips, and cokes.

Eighth grade sponsors are: Mrs. Sellers, Miss Hupenbecker, Mr. Shearer, and Mr. Oglesby. Representatives who worked with these sponsors on the committees are: Donna Brown, Pat Kush, Gwen Beaver, Marilyn Marker, Carl Roempagel, Arthur Kiser, John Morse, Don Snyder, and Dixie Barnhart.

SENIORS ENJOY SKIP DAY

Did you think Friday, May 12, was extra quiet at school? Did you think the halls looked empty? Did you note the absence of a certain quiet, silent tranquil group? That was the day the seniors were free from school on their annual Skip Day.

Yes, the (mighty) seniors—firecrackers, and all—left for Turkey Run State Park on Indiana Motor Buses at 7:30 a.m. Mr. Robert Mathioudakis and Miss Dagny Lenon chaperoned the group of 52. Everyone enjoyed himself, with activities ranging from horseback riding and souvenir hunting, to following the numerous trails winding through forests and deep canyons.

Jo Anna Harter to Attend Limberlost

One of our Junior Red Cross members has been unanimously chosen by the County Junior Red Cross Committee to attend Camp Limberlost for recreation and leadership training. She is Miss Jo Anna Harter, who is one of the four delegates from St. Joseph County. This will be a fine opportunity for her to meet other young people interested in Junior Red Cross work and to discuss problems with them.

It is a very great honor to be chosen to attend this camp, as there are many who are interested but are not chosen. I'm sure we all want to congratulate Jo Ann on this accomplishment and wish her luck and a good time while at the camp.

Don Schlundt to Undergo Operation

If everyone will turn his thoughts back to the final game of the sectional tournament, he will recall, besides the fact that Washington-Clay was defeated by Central, that Don Schlundt was held to his least number of points. Rumors had it that Don was tired; he was scared; or that he just "gave up". But Coach Eaton and Don's team mates knew that it was leg trouble that held Don back. People, at that time, said it was just another one of those excuses that a school passed around to defend its players.

However, today it has been known that after school is out Don will go to the hospital for an operation on his right leg. Dr. George Plain will perform the operation. Don will be laid up most of the summer, but everyone is pulling for him, hoping the star center will be back on the hardwood next fall. Best wishes, Don, for a speedy recovery.

ANNUALS DISTRIBUTED

The 1950 Minuteman, Washington Clay's yearbook, were distributed Friday, May 19. The gold covered books had much work put into them and are special memorials of school days. Congratulations to Marilyn Barnhart, Annual Editor for the fine work with her capable staff.

"A NEW DECADE, A NEW LIFE"

Once again it is time to hear the strains of the graduation march and the seniors find themselves receiving diplomas. It is then that all the thoughts of being out of school and "on your own" become a reality.

Those morning chats in the study hall, basketball games, parties, plays, and proms are all a memory. Now we are aware of the fact that all these events were the kind that would go down as unforgettable, and some of the best times of our lives. The things we experience now—Caps and Gowns, Baccalaureate services, Class rings, pictures, yearbook, senior class day, diplomas and that last handshake with the members of the faculty, will be history in a short while.

Perhaps it is not until now that we begin to feel grateful for the things our parents have done for us throughout these twelve years of school. Most of us hardly know the meaning of responsibility. Of course we are responsible for meeting assignments on time, and other things that are expected of a high school student. But the thought of buying our own clothing, food, and other necessities probably has not made much of a dent in the minds of any of us. This is what most of us are facing now. But we know what's ahead of us, we shall face it and we and our country shall be the better for it.

It is evident that each of the seniors has thoroughly enjoyed his high school days. You will find that most of them regret leaving W. C. H. S., yet we realize it would be impossible to remain in high school indefinitely. I am sure that most of us are anxiously awaiting our graduation day and are looking forward to the future.

To the teachers, parents, and underclassmen, we who are seniors say "THANKS". You've done your best to help us during our school days. We'll do our best not to let you down in the years to come—and I hope you may all be proud of us. "THANKS"—one and all!

LIFE IS JUST A SONG

I've Got It Bad And That Ain't Good—Spring fever that is, and two more final exams to take. Definitely not good.

I Can Dream Can't I?—That the teacher will exempt me from that final tomorrow.

M-O-P-P, R-A-G-G, Rag Mop—That's the way I'd like to have all my spelling lessons from now on.

You Missed The Boat—That's what the teacher said when I found out that I was going to take my senior year over again.

It Isn't Fair—That the teacher calls on me for the only answer I don't have.

Someday—Maybe I'll get an A.

You're Breaking My Heart—The substitute teacher who says there will be no assignments for tomorrow.

Make Believe—That Mr. Harke will suddenly announce that all people having something else to do can leave now and come back when they feel like it.

Don't Roll Those Bloodshot Eyes At Me—All the Washington-Clay student's eyes in the morning, from studying so hard at night.

There's No Tomorrow—When we're out doing something else when our homework lies stacked up at home.

How I Love To Sleep—On week-day mornings. (Never on Saturday)

Dear Dad, Gue$$ what I need most of. That$ right. $end it along. Be$t wi$he$. Your $on, Ru$$.

Dear Russ. NOthing ever happens here. We knOw you like your school. Write us aNOther letter, Jim was asking about you at NOon. NOW we must say goodbye. As ever, Dad.

Freshmen: "Mamma, may I go out tonight?"

Sophomore: "Going out, Mom. Be home by ten."

Junior: "By, Ma. Don't wait up."

Senior: "Night, Mater. I'll bring in the milk."

Would Happen If-- What Do You Suppose

HERMAN were a willow instead of a REED.

MARILYN were in a group of buyers instead of with the SELLERS.

MARTHA were a good woman instead of a BADMAN.

CHARLES were a chipmunk instead of a BEAVER.

Rosetta were a Buick instead of just a FORD.

Dick were Paul's son instead of JOHNSON.

JOYCE were a crutch instead of a KANE.

MARTHA were an actress instead of a SINGER.

BEVERLY were a swallow instead of a MARTIN.

DELBERT were half a comb instead of a HOLCOMB.

John were far away instead of NEHER.

LONNIE were a farmer instead of a MILLER.

VIVIAN were English instead of IRISH.

JACK were a rock instead of a STONE.

Alice brought winds instead of RAINES.

ORCHIDS TO:

Rosemary Lavis, Editor, and her hard-working Colonial staff for carrying the school paper through its best year ever.

Junior class sponsors for such a beautiful prom.

Mr. Swyers and the music department for enriching our school programs throughout the year.

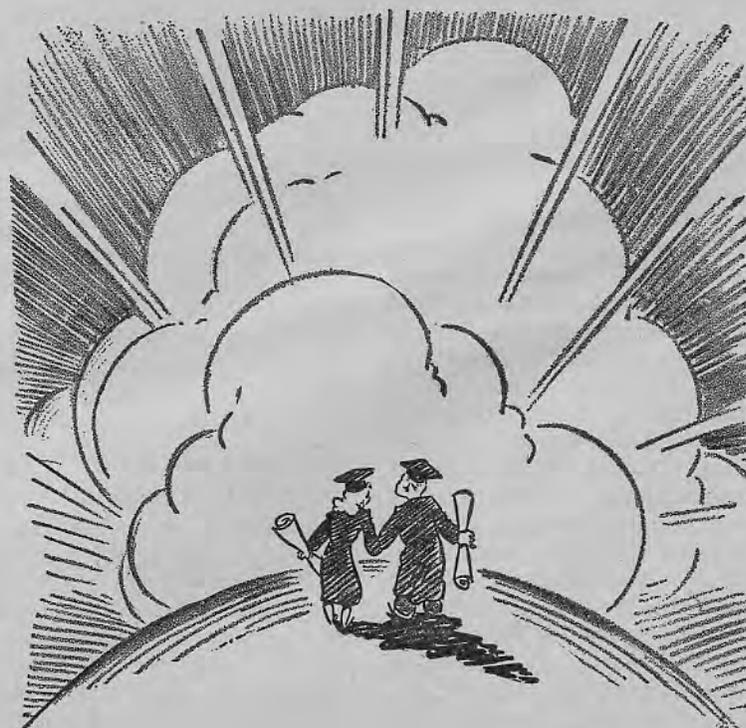

Velma Rogers and Charles Cousins for winning the Etiquette Club Service Awards.

ONIONS TO:

All the students who don't obey those "Keep Off" signs on the grass.

People who stay up so late that they fall asleep during class.

Students who don't get their work in before the end of the grade period.

Lower Ends

Here it is almost time for school to be out and everybody seems to have spring fever.

What is this we hear about Ann Kreps taking Ted Neher to the Spring Formal? Nothing like keeping it in the family, huh Ann.

Susie Roden is taking Don Lynch and Patsy Danielson is taking John Neher to the Spring Formal. Things sure are getting exciting around here!!

What is this about Jack Stone and Vera Struever being "Heart-breakers"?

Jack Melton seems to be sticking to his word about going steady with a different girl every week.

Is it true that Dolly Vexel has a mad crush on Jack Stone?

I hear the Minutemen initiation stunk, with all those rotten eggs.

The Sub-Deb initiation was pretty hot, with all that horseradish.

Susie R. and Petie K., what happened after the Sophomore Class Party? Were Don L. and John N. in on this?

Kermit Firrel must really have a crush on Susie Roden. She enjoyed the candy very much.

It must be love, huh, Donna Tooper and Chuck Myers!!

It seems Pat Greenwood is still getting flowers. Some girls sure rate!!

Whats this about Dick H. giving up Donna B. for Nancy K?

It must be love, with Earl H. and Mary B.

What are those pictures that Tom Doads took, which are supposed to get Randy C. in trouble?

Shirley N. had a good time May 15, and it was without the help of Jack Melton.

What's this about Ena L. having a crush on Wilson M.?

Is it true about Patsy Keating and Carl Nye?

Sue Shoup might have a torch for Bob Owens!

Jim Pruett doesn't like the girls from W. C. He likes Riley!

Carol Sue Shelly likes for Dennis Lynch to walk her home after the track meets.

Whats this about John Thompson and Elizabeth Seifert?

Why don't Elaine Neely and Tommy L. go back together?

"Pat K. is so different", says Jack C.

Could Dick Covert and Kay Birmingham be keeping secrets?

Ora Riggle must have Julie Stemen trained. She knows you aren't supposed to stop the car when it isn't dark.

Who is Sheila B. carrying a torch for? Could it be Don P. or Frank W.?

Janice W. looks dazed. Donald Z. better look into this.

What is this we hear about Doris Hicks sticking her tongue out at Joe Harman? Say, Say!

A chip on the shoulder often means more wood a little higher up.

OFF THE RECORD

Here we are again with a review of the latest records on this week's platter parade.

Something different in the style of Spike Jones is "Chinese Mule Train". The words are a combination of double talk, Chinese, and so-called English. So listen to it the next time you hear it on the radio.

The piano artists seem to be doing quite well for themselves lately. A new name on records is Feb September—you may know him better as Jan August, who does a fine job on "Piano Roll Blues". His recording of "Bewitched" is also easy to listen to.

Nat "King" Cole who has been slipping on the popularity list re-assumes his throne with his latest recording of "I Almost Lost My Mind." and "Baby, Won't You Say You Love Me."

Patty Page is another girl who came up in the popularity ranks with her recording of "With My Eyes Wide Open" in which she sings all four parts. Her latest is "If I Knew You Were Comin' ". It's tagged with "I Don't Care If

The Sun Don't Shine." It's all reet!

The ten year old wizard, "Sugar Chile" Robinson, who is in the same classification as Tony Harper, has just waxed a new batch of records for Capitol. His famous "Bouncing Ball Boogie" is the best down-beat steppin' music ever. Sugar Chile claims his best record to be "Say, Little Girl."

Bill Eckstine is causing music lovers to sit up and listen again. Billy is improving by leaps and bounds. At any rate, the husky singer's new MGM platter, "My Foolish Heart" coupled with "Sure Thing" is a fine performance.

That about winds up the record sessions for this semester. Keep spinning those records this summer and see you all again next September.

Cols. Nip Washington In Final Meet

The current track season for Washington-Clay ended on our track, May 15, when the team eked out a slim victory by 3 points over the Washington Panthers.

The decisive measure of the meet was the grand slam made by our boys in the shot put for 9 points.

John Landiut was the star, taking first in the 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, high jump, and securing the winning relay team from Washington.

The winning of this meet gave our team an over all record of 5 victories in 6 regular meets. This also meant a win in the county and Lakeville Relays.

The rundown:

High Hurdle—1. Stankus W, 2. Snyder WC, 3. Neher WC.

100 Yard Dash—1. Landiut W, 2. Stone WC, 3. Pingle WC.

Mile Win—1. Stankus W, 2. Harmon WC, 3. Huddleston WC.

440 Yard Dash—1. Lynch WC, 2. Bethel W, 3. Robinson W.

220-yard dash—1. Ladiut W, 2. Stone WC, 3. Hegedus W.

880 Yard Run—1. Grovkowski W, 2. Troeger WC, 3. Lynch WC.

Low Hurdles—1. Pingle WC, 2. Garnekki W, 3. Ywert W.

High Jump—1. Landiut W, 2. Roth WC and Tootena W.

Pole Vault—1. Blackford WC, Riggle WC, Stone WC; all tied.

Broad Jump—1. Stone WC, 2. Bethel W, 3. Robinson W.

Shot Put—1. Johnson WC, 2. Molicki W, 3. Todd WC.

Half Mile Relay—WC, Stone, Wengel, Pingle, Tam.

Mile Relay—W, Bethel, Robinson, Gronthouski, Landiut.

Have pity on those sad boys

Colonials Cop Lakeville Relays

Rain and high winds hampered the winning of the Lakeville Relays, but the final score saw the cindermen from W.C. ahead of their nearest competitor by a margin of 12 points.

The Lakeville Relays, unlike most other meets, has only one runner from each school in each event which gave us a good chance to win because of our individual strength in each event. This gives the athletes from each school a better chance because of the smaller number running.

John Neher

When an Englishman laughs at a joke, he laughs at it three times. He laughs first to be polite, second, he laughs when he is told the explanation of the joke, and he laughs the third time when he catches on.

When a German is told a joke, he laughs twice. He laughs first to be polite, and second when he fails to catch on.

A Frenchman laughs but once—when he immediately catches on.

But when an American is told a joke, he doesn't laugh at all—he's already heard the joke before.
