

Senior Skip Day

The Senior Class will visit Pokagon State Park Friday, May 4. The park is near Angola. The Class of '51 is chartering two buses. The Seniors will leave at 8:00 a.m. and will return at 7:00 p.m.

They will have a picnic and are expected to consume 28 dozen hot dogs, 24 dozen buns, and 12 cases of pop. If they survive the first course they will start on 6 gallons of potato salad, 6 gallons of baked beans, potato chips, ice cream and cookies. If they live through this they should return at 7:00 p.m.

G. A. A. Plans Mother Daughter Banquet

Mrs. Heideman invited the G. A. A. to have their annual Spring picnic at Isaac Walton League Park. The date was set for May 1. The girls invited Mrs. Bruner as a guest. Everyone had a wonderful time.

The G. A. A. Annual Mother-Daughter Banquet will be held at the Y. W. C. A. Residence on May 10, at 6:30. Sharon Kubsch and Shirley Church are the co-chairmen of the event. Acting in the capacity of toastmistress will be Janet Lane. The class speakers are: Pat Logan, Freshman; Julie Stemen, Sophomore; Nancy Teeter, Junior. Dorothy Johnson will give the invocation.

A Sportsmanship plaque will be given to one junior girl. Varsity monograms and letters will be awarded also. At the last meeting new officers for next year were elected. These will not be revealed until the night of the banquet when they will be installed. (Coronation of Roses)

The guest speaker at the banquet will be Miss Dorothy Twomey, Director of Health Recreation on the Staff of the Y. W. C. A. of South Bend. The honored guests will be Miss Walter, Mrs. Bruner, Mr. and Mrs. Harke, Mr. and Mrs. Harbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Mohn, Mr. and Mrs. Eaton.

Clay Places Third In Goshen Relay

On Saturday, April 21, Washington-Clay took a contingent of 7 men to the Goshen Relays. Much to the surprise of all concerned Washington-Clay placed third, losing second place by only one point to Howe Military. The Colonials took firsts in the sprint relay and double medley; placing second in the half-mile relay. In taking first place in sprint relay Clay set a new record 1:45.5, beating the old record by two tenths of a second. Considering the fact that Saturday was a windy day any time close to a record is exceptional. In all relay events there are four participants from each school. The sprint relay consists of a 440, a 220, and two races of 110 yds each.

If any of the students had occasion to witness this event, they were probably impressed by the large number of participants and the enthusiasm that is displayed by spectators and participants.

Picnic Plans Changed

The Etiquette Club will hold its picnic at Pottawatomie Park instead of Tower Hill on Sunday May 6th. The plans were to hire a bus and have the picnic at Tower Hill, but after inquiring about the cost of hiring a bus for such a trip and receiving our financial statement from Warren Furnish, the club treasurer, it was learned that it would cost at least $1.00 each from those that are going. It was decided after talking to the members of the club that this was too much to pay for a picnic.

As plans now stand the picnic will be held at Pottawatomie Park from 1:30 to 7:00 in the afternoon and evening. Everyone is to meet at the school at 1:30 so transportation can be arranged. It will cost twenty-five cents each from everyone going to help defray the cost of the food. Students will be back at the school at 8:00.

MRS. SCHULTZ AND MRS. SCULTHORP ATTEND MEETING

Mrs. Jean Sculthorp and Mrs. Sarah Schultz attended a meeting in Knox, Indiana for Home Economic leaders. The meeting and fashion show was sponsored by L. S. Ayres Company of Indianapolis. The theme of the meeting was Wardrobe Planning featuring trends in fashion and good grooming.

One of the newest trends in fashions is the wearing of all fabrics in all seasons, velvet in summer and sheers in winter so long as one is comfortable. Fashions no longer have a season.

Hemlines are going up, the current style is 14 in. from the floor.

MILES SPEAKS ON ALCOHOL EDUCATION

Mr. Arthur Miles of the Indiana Temperance League Inc., spoke to Mr. Eaton's Alcoholics class on Alcohol Education Wednesday afternoon, May 2.

The Indiana Temperance League Inc. is the successor to the Indiana Anti-Saloon League and the Indiana Temperance Movement Inc.

If You Go To Work

Vacation time and graduation time will soon be here. Many of you will secure jobs which are covered by the Social Security Act. Most employers will want to see your social security card before they will place you on the pay-roll. So, Keep Your Card In A Safe Place. If you have lost your original card, you should call at or write the Social Security Field Office listed below. They will secure the original number issued to you, as that ONE NUMBER IS THE ONLY ONE YOU SHOULD EVER USE. If you never had a number, you can secure an account number card by calling at or writing to: Social Security Administration, 209 Federal Building, South Bend.

This letter was received from the Social Security Administration.

EIGHTH GRADE MINSTREL SHOW

The 8th grade classes presented a Minstrel show, Wednesday, May 2, in the gym. Two performances were given—one in the afternoon for the Senior high school and the evening performance was at 8:00. Another performance was given Tuesday afternoon for the junior high.

Seniors Choose Their Vocation

As the time of graduation draws near we begin to wonder what our ambitious seniors plan to do when they get out of school. We started a survey of this point and found out that after they graduate they plan to:

Don Lynch—Attend college if possible.

John Neher—College to study medicine. Get married at the age of 26 and also build a house in his spare time on the lot he owns. (Sounds like quite a schedule John.)

Dick Ryan—Going to be a butcher in a grocery store.

Dixie Grounds—Work at the telephone company—also she might go to Florida.

Shirley Clobridge—Attend Indiana University.

Dorothy Sebelski—Work in an office at Notre Dame.

Delmar Kizer—Go to service.

Jack Stone—Run the Stone modeling agency—also attend college.

Becky Serene—Loaf until September. Then do filing work.

Stella Zarzyka—Work at the telephone company.

Louise Kleinrichert—Plans to become a teacher.

Jim Godshalk—Drive a stock car.

Myrtle Jackson—Go to Indiana University.

Tom Hickey—Work and try to stay out of the army.

This is all the interviews for this issue but they will continue in the next issue of the Colonial.

Junior Red Cross Scrapbook Made

The Junior Red Cross has made a correspondence scrapbook that was exhibited at the Red Cross Meeting at the Chapter house on May 2nd. The people that participated in this worthwhile project were, Robert Gregory, Jane Horner, Janet Lane, Kenneth Wisler, Rose Plaia and Glenn Cokinos, Jo Anna Harter, Catherine McNerney, and Sandra Nagy.

This correspondence program is another one of the splendid projects of the Red Cross. It consists of the exchanging of albums that the Junior Red Cross members make with other students of other lands. We sent our scrapbook to Denmark in return for the albums we received from them last year. This program gives the opportunity of getting to know and understand the people of other lands better and in return shows them what we do in our schools here in America.

All who helped in this program should be proud of the work they did in helping to spread world unity.

EDITORIAL

It will soon be here, the day everyone has been waiting for. By this, I mean, of course, Commencement. For the underclassmen it will mean that they are getting rid of those stuck up snobs—the Seniors. For the faculty, it will mean that another class will be passing out of the halls of Washington Clay for good, but soon another will be taking its place. For the Seniors, it will be "The Day"—the day they have been looking forward to with mixed emotions.

Some will be very happy when that day comes, because it will mean that they will finally be out from under the thumb of the teacher and on their own, or so think. Others will hate the day because they will have to go out and earn their own living, and they are a little scared of the idea.

Then there will be those who will look at it in a very general way. They've gone to school and done school work for twelve years in order to graduate and now the day is here. That's all there is to it.

No matter how you feel as the time grows closer, I can sympathize with you, because as for me, "I'm scared!!!"

The Three Musty Tears

PEG, PAT, 'N MAG

Goodbye, Mr. Harke. See you Monday.

Well, I guess we had better get our tickets; we have about 20 minutes to wait.

Round trip to Bloomington, please.

Here's your change.

Whew—17 cents change from a ten.

Let me take your picture before we go.

Let's get a front seat so we can see.

Oh nuts, they beat us to it. Well, we'll all sit in the back seat.

Whew, isn't it hot back here.

Let's move up.

Okay.

First stop, Logansport — you have twenty minutes.

Do you think we should get off the bus?

Why?

Those guys with the butterfly nets might catch us.

Oh, if we're careful they won't. Boy, am I hungry—you said it—I'm famished.

No room in the restaurant.

Let's get some popcorn then.

Okay.

Here, I'll hold the sack, you put in the dime.

Hurry up, get that bag under there.

Hold this dime. Oh nuts, where did it go? It must have fallen into the popcorn.

Well, we did pretty good—we have two bags of popcorn and we spent 40 cents. Boy, they saw us coming.

Thank you, Miss Walter, these Hershey bars will make up for no lunch.

Last call for Indianapolis.

C'mon, we'll miss the bus.

Let's try again to get a front seat.

Finally—we can see evrything from here.

Should I ask him?

Sure, go ahead.

Is your name Lee.

Yes, how did you know?

Oh — connections you know. (Miss Walter had recognized him as a former resident of her home town of Winamac)

Why don't you call all the stops?

Well, if nobody is getting off, there is no use calling them.

Okay, we'll call them for you, that is if we see the town before we get through.

Missed that one, remind me to look for it en the way back.

Lee, do you drive back to South Bend on Sunday.

No, I have Saturday and Sunday off.

Oh, seniority—like Studebaker's bumping.

Yea, I guess that's what you call it.

This must be the new highway to Indianapolis.

Look at that limestone—isn't this a beautiful highway.

And the scenery!

Here we are.

Oh, brother, I'm stiff.

Goodby and thank you, Mr. Haynes.

Goodbye and thank you!

We have a half-hour wait for the Bloomington bus.

Let's go to see the Soldier and Sailor Monument in the circle.

Look at that store front around like the circle street.

It's that new building they were starting when I came down 2 years ago.

Penny's, isn't it beautiful?

Let's go all the way around the circle.

If we go down Meridian we can see Wassons and L. S. Ayres & Company.

Turn right at the next street so we can go past the Claypool Hotel.

There's Elock's, we can walk there and come out the Market Street entrance across from the bus depot.

Look at all the formals in the windows.

Boy, would I like to have a formal like that to wear to the Prom.

I like this one.

Do we have time to go up to the third floor to look at the formals?

Golly, we hadn't better, we only have five minutes.

I'll go ahead and save front seats; you bring my suitcase.

Aren't there any more seats?

Sorry, there'll be another bus here in a few minutes.

You'll have to stay on that bus now that you are on.

The driver has already punched my ticket.

We'll meet you at the Bloomington bus depot.

This highway was cut right through these limestone hills.

It sure is pretty country around here.

There's a new University School.

Ummmm-----

What are you looking at?

A——the fraternity houses—

did you ever see so many men and good looking, too.

You might know—men.

Here's Hickory Hall.

Brother, am I hungry.

You are, I'm starved.

I guess we're supposed to get our room key from the lady at the desk.

Do you mean that all three of you want to stay in one room—you know there are only two beds in a room.

That's okay with us!

Let's go down town to eat—then we can go to a show. We can walk.

There's the city bus, I'm too tired to walk—me too.

Run or we'll miss the bus.

I suppose they call this the square here in Bloomington.

I wonder where the restaurants are.

Should we ask him.

Yes, he's handsome enough.

Excuse me, could you tell me where the restaurants are?

Well, there's a few—do you like Italian food—sure—the Italian Village is two blocks south of here on the main street.

Okay, thank you.

Let's go to the Roxy Theater and see "Bride for Sale" and "Sands of Iwo Jima."

Pretty good show.

Let's take a taxi back to the Indiana Campus—Hickory Hall, campus—it is rather late to walk. Please.

Look at the dispatcher telling the driver something—he must not trust us.

Where is this Hickory Hall, girls? (we gave him directions)

(Heard from over the two-way radio) How are you doing 18? Okay. How do you like that—How are you doing 18—Brother!!

Hi kids.

Well what do you know—Beverly Platt. Come on in.

Where do you go to school now? Warsaw.

Gee, it's been nice to talk to you—see you tomorrow.

Let's go to sleep.

Good morning—I guess the rain woke us up.

What time is it?

Don't know—I'll go ask someone.

It's 7:30.

We'll get dressed and go to breakfast at the Students' Union Building.

Do you know what time it is—6:30!

It must have been 5:30 when she told me it was 7:30.

We take the tests upstairs in a big hall.

Brother what a test.

It's really hot in this dorm room isn't it—leave the door open.

Did someone call "Dinner Call."

I don't know—couldn't understand.

Shut the door!!—there's a man out there!

He must have called "Men in the hall."

We'd better wash our ears.

We can eat lunch and walk around the campus and then go to East Hall and hear the results of the tests.

There is the cutest senior girl I have seen walkinig around the hall, kind of sad lately because graduation day is drawing so near, that I would like to interview this time.

She is 5 feet 4½ inches tall with brown eyes and light brown hair and the cutest dimples. I didn't ask her how much she weighed because none of the girls ever tell anyway. (bashful) Her favorite color is blue and her song is "BE MY LOVE." In her free time she likes to play the piano and eat ice cream. In years to come she plans to become a teacher.

Do you know who this talented gal is now? Of course who else but—LOUISE KLEINRICHERT.

We'd better stay in town—see a show or something—it's too hot in the East Hall auditorium to sit through "Rigoletto"

Bender's sounds good—we'll eat there.

Let's shop first—Henderson's, that sounds good—nice little gift shop.

Let's see "Father's Little Dividend" at the Indiana Theater.

The show doesn't start for awhile—let's stop in this music store.

Do you have a flute—may I play it?

Pretty good show—let's find a soda shop.

Everything's closed in this town. There's a fountain.

Look where we are after walking all over town—right next to the Indiana.

It's so nice out, we can walk home. (Here Lassie, Lassie; Lassie, Come Home)

That looks like a new bookstore—How about stopping in.

Let's play those records we saw in the lounge room.

Don't forget, you are going to teach me how to Charleston.

Can we wear our P. J.'s.

I hope so.

Let's go across the veranda.

We can't, there are men in there.

Let's go to sleep, I'm tired.

Rise and Shine—it's hot out already and it's just 7:30.

How about breakfast at the Student Union and then walk through the cool looking woods down by the Sure, did you call a taxi?

Well what do you know, Mr. Turrel—the same cab driver that brought us Friday.

Goodbye, Mr. Turrel, see you when we visit again.

It's a good thing the rain decided to wait until after we left Bloomington.

I've lost my ticket.

Are you sure—let's look for it.

I knew something would happen.

Just a minor mishap.

Well, we've got front seats going back.

Track Season Gets under Way

The Colonial track team opened their track schedule with a triangular meet at Niles on April 17th.

The inexperienced track men made a rather poor showing but gained a considerable amount of knowledge about winning. Defeat is often the gem of improvement and the boys took this defeat to heart and practiced all the harder.

Although the team as a whole made a poor showing we had a few stars shine brightly. Jack Stone ran his usual fine style and Duke Blackford and Keith Stone were impressive in the pole vault.

The first home track meet of the season saw the cindermen of W. C. put on their running shoes and decisively down New Carlisle 68½ to 40½.

Walkerton threw a scare into our track boys as we barely edged past them 54 2/3 to 54 1/3.

This meet wasn't decided until the final man, or I should say till our half mile relay team crossed the finish line. Duke Blackford was credited with saving the day when he entered the high jump for his first time this year and won it as he cleared the bar at 5 feet 5 in.

Don Lynch, Jack Stone, and Leo Tam ran their races in fine style and took good places for us.

BASEBALL

The Colonials opened their spring baseball schedule with a victory over the South Bend Catholic Lions by a score of 18 to 11.

This game was hotly contested in the first few innings until the Clay diamond men exploded for 8 runs in the 4th inning on 5 hits, 3 errors, and a walk. The winning pitcher was Wileman and the loser Hosinski.

The second game of the current season played on April 24 saw the Niles Vikings and Washington-Clay end in a 7-7 tie. This game was played during a slight rain and both pitchers had trouble.

Wileman let the Colonial attack with three hits while Hardy was pitching a creditable game.

Both teams appeared to be green but should improve as the season rolls along.

Coach Eaton stated that his team this year is one of the best hitting teams he has had.

In the second dual meet on our home track Washington Clay was thoroughly dumped by Washington 36½ to 72½.
