SENIORS TO HOLD ANNUAL SWEATER HOP

SENIOR HIGH CLASS OFFICERS

JUNIORS

SENIORS SET
OCTOBER 17
AS DATE

LANE AND LATTIMER
APPOINTED AS CO-CHAIRMEN

By Nancy Kleinrichert

The moon is high in the sky and you're home alone. No, you don't have to be. You know, you could be at the 14th Annual Senior Sweater Hop.

Yes, all you people that have been asking when the first dance is. It's here and now is the chance to get your tickets from Janet DePriester or any of her committee.

Kenny Wjlsler has been hard at work on the publicity side with Virginia Jacobs and her committee of Onalee Hicks, Shirley Church and Jack Humphrey, making sure that you will have a dance band to dance to.

You'll be dancing under the decorations created by the capable hand of Julie Stemen and her crew.

If you're like most of us you'll be wanting a refresher about the third dance, so the seniors have made Carolyn Clauser responsible for having soft drinks and a snack to go with it.

While dancing, note the wonderful sponsors who have given their time in making this dance a success.

By the way, the date is October seventeenth. This will be Friday, so no excuse of having to do school work or having to go to school the next day.

Tell your date to be on time, because it starts at eight. If you get there then, you'll have three full hours of dancing because it's not over until eleven. This dance is limited to students of high school age and adults.

Let's not disappoint Janet Lane and Dick Lattimer who have, along with the sponsors and committee, worked so hard at making this dance, the first one in the new school, a big turnout.

Remember, this is our new school and we want to show our visitors we're proud of it. Let's set a good example for them to follow.

See you there, kids!!!

The pattern chosen was "Cavalier." This pattern was unanimously chosen over "Stardust," another pattern brought to the juniors' attention.

Mr. Vogel, the representative, showed the two patterns, and asked the class to make the choice. The "Cavalier" won, with "oohs and ahs" from the girls and a hearty approval from the boys.

The rings are to be delivered in the latter part of November or the first part of December. They are to be no later than Christmas.

The juniors had their choice of gold, pink gold, white satin or a blue, red, or black set. Most of the girls chose either the gold, white satin or pink gold. The boys went in accord with the girls.

SOPHOMORES

JUNIOR CLASS MEETING

The first Junior Class Meeting was held second hour, Wednesday, September twenty-fourth in the cafeteria. The new officers elected were: President, Phillip Holcomb; Vice-president, Gordon Colson; Secretary, Nancy Kleinrichert; Treasurer, Jay Brown.

The subject of a money raising project was discussed. Mr. Harbaugh introduced Mrs. Moore from the Ward Art Studios in Warsaw, and she showed several beautiful blue-mirror religious plaques. As the class looked at the plaques, Mrs. Moore told them the necessary details about selling them. The prices range from $1.00 to $3.75. The plaques are round, oval, and rectangular. They come in various sizes. They are sold in pairs or singly, and come in foil gift boxes. They would make lovely Christmas or Easter gifts.

They are on sale now. If anyone saw the beautiful plaques on display in Room 4, and would like to buy one or more, let any Junior know.

SOPHOMORES ELECT OFFICERS

The Sophomore class held its class meeting on September 24 in the school cafeteria. Mr. Macon began the meeting and then last year's president, Danny Augh, continued with the business.

NEW OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN

The class officers of Washington-Clay High School were elected on Wednesday, September 24.

These officers are your representatives and the school's. They have a long and responsible job ahead. It's up to you, as a part of Washington-Clay to help them make it a tip-top year. Let's go!

So you didn't want someone that got in and you voted for someone else, alright, forget who you voted for and get behind the one chosen by the majority.

If you have any school spirit or want to be proud of your school get in back of them and help.

Maybe you don't agree on certain matters brought up, well voice your opinion openly during the meeting, not behind their backs where the only good it will do is bring your name down as a back biter. Then whatever is decided on, whether you are for it or not, help those in charge. As that fine old saying goes, "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you."

"SENIORS FIRST MEETING"

The first Senior class meeting was held September twenty-fourth in the school Cafeteria. They elected class officers for the year. They are as follows:

President — Dennis Lynch.
Vice President — Don Hardy.
Secretary — Janet Lane.
Treasurer — Randall Grounds.
Sgt.-of-Arms — Gerry Walton.

The Seniors have a fine group of officers who will do a good job.

They are a group that will work together as a team if, the seniors, will just back them up.

Plans were made for the Senior Dance. It will be a sweater hop, and will be held in the school cafeteria on Friday, October 17, at 8:00 P. M.

Just one more thing, "Remember Seniors, this is your last year, so why not work together and prove to the underclassmen that you have a little zeal too. Prove that you are worthy of being the first class to graduate from the new high school."

From the Office of the Principal

It is with great pleasure that we announce that open house for the new high school will be held on Sunday, October 19, from 2:00 to 5:00 P. M. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this open house.

Then, contrary to previous announcement, formal dedication of the new building will take place on Tuesday, October 28, at 8:00 P. M. There will be a musical program starting at seven thirty, previous to the formal dedication.

We are honored to have as the principal speaker at this dedication Indiana's State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Mr. Wilbur Young.

The public in general, and all Clay Township people particularly, are cordially invited to witness this formal dedication. We have a high school of which we are justly proud and for which we are deeply grateful.

Grass seed has now been planted in front and on the sides of the new high school. Students are asked for their cooperation in walking on the sidewalks only in order to give this seed a chance to grow. Cutting corners or across the seeded areas will result in bare spots when the grass comes up and will necessitate additional work.

PLEASE WATCH YOUR STEP!

Principal.

GETTING ACQUAINTED

By Magdalene Gaedtke

In the past weeks, we have seen many new faces among us. We have, I hope, welcomed them in our new school. This year we have our school to get acquainted with, too. Just as we treat our newly found friends with respect and admiration, so we must treat our school with respect and admiration. On dedication day we want to prove that we take pride in our new school. The rooms were built and furnished for certain studies.

When we come to know new friends better we like them all the more and continue to get more enjoyment from their friendship that we remember to receive from our new school more enjoyment, more happy memories, and more pleasure from the use of its facilities as we learn to use them.

As we clothe our schoolmates with our friendships, we clothe our school with tradition. May their traditions be good ones brought about by our planning and working. We have to "break in" the school so that others will be able to have and use the equipment after us. In order that we might get the full benefit from our classes, we should co-operate with our teachers and fellow classmates by having the proper supplies. A student who is constantly borrowing pencils, paper, and books will be a nuisance to his teachers and friends.

We can have lots of fun with new friends and the new school, by giving out just as much as we expect in return. Our school life is exactly what we make it. Let's make it good!

PLATTER PATTER

By Marilyn and Barb

Greetings! Here we are once again to inform you that the tunes that were tops last week are still tops this week. Although Pattie Page's recording of "I Went to Your Wedding" has but hit the top spot on your Hit Parade.

Since we mentioned in our column last week a variety of the latest platters, this week we are turning to a few individual favorites. Passing through the hall we see Catherine McNerney and Carol Walsh, sitting at the Y-Teens table, we asked them what their favorite was, the reply was "Wish You Were

"Auf Wiederseh'n" seems to rate high with Satch Holcomb and Barb Staack.

Running into four prosperous Senior boys, we find Larry Humphrey's favorite to be "Trying." Bill Hennings likes "Glow Worm," Randy Grounds picked "High Noon" and last but not least, Don Dudley says "Anything."

Next, we meet Nancy Kleinrichert, she likes "Moonlight Serenade." Mary Bayer says "You Belong to Me." Ade Lupa rates as tops "Should I?" Sherlyn Serene and Shirley Milliken says "Red Hot Henrette Brown" (Now what kind of song is that? ?)

Ups, excuse us, well if it isn't a few of our fellow classmates, Hi, Julius Farkus, what's your favorite

GAEDTKE AND LANDICK TO WRITE FOR TRIBUNE

By Marilyn Ellen

Magdalene Gaedtke and Barbara Landick have been chosen to write the Colonial news for the South Bend Tribune. The high-school news, a regular feature of the Sunday paper, is written by a senior and a junior of each school.

Magdalene, the senior writer, had been on the Colonial staff since her freshman year. This year she is the editorial editor.

Barbara, the junior, has been writing for the Colonial since her freshman year. This year she is writing the columns, "Jane and Joe" co-operatively with Phyllis Zimmermen.

Any school news can be sent to the Tribune. Magdalene and Barbara want to hear about all the news so they can write it up. They would welcome clever ideas for pictures. All news items should be given to Barbara or Magdalene by Friday.

CHESS CLUB ORGANIZED

By Mary Ellen

A Chess Club for anyone interested in chess (whether they can play or not) was organized Friday noon, September 26, 1952. The faculty sponsors, Mr. Macon and Mr. Schmitz, told the group some things about the game and how it's played. The newly organized club then decided to hold one meeting immediately after school and one in the evening so everyone could attend. It was decided to hold a chess tournament in the spring and award a trophy, if possible. The club officers were elected. They are: President, Keith Williams; Vice-President, Charles Lang; Secretary, Elsie Greenwood, and Treasurer, Connie Claffey.

Anyone who is interested in joining this club, can see Keith Williams, Mr. Macon or Mr. Schmitz for information.

COLONIAL - ANNUAL ROOM APPRECIATED

We, all of us, who are on the Annual and Colonial Staffs, wish to express our appreciation to for having a room of our own.

Room, No. 7, is equipped with two filing cabinets, a desk, two typewriters, and other, long overdue, equipment to help with the daily duties and needed records.

We feel with the co-operation of all those associated with this room, we can take good care of it and we are sure we can produce a much better Colonial and annual than ever before.

tune? "Jumbli" you say? Jim Turner seems to go along with Julius. Carl Rumpagle's favorite song is "Cigarettes, Whiskey and Wild, Wild Women." Carl Lehner says his is "Too Old to Cut the Mustard Any More." Roger Ullery says "You Belong to Me."

As we walk into our home room we find Pat Logan who likes "Carmen Boogie." Delores Lane says "Meet Mr. Callahan" is her favorite. Alyce Peterson likes "Fool, Fool, Fool." And, yes it's Alice Duncan sitting here, and she said her's is "It Takes Two to Tango."

We find that our School Librarian and our Music teacher both prefer "Star Dust."

Closing our column for this week, we hope by the next issue we will have a whole new list of top tunes.

So long for now, and remember what a person doesn't know doesn't hurt him, but it gives his friends something to talk about.

Y-TEENS

By Janet Lane

The first meeting of the Y-Teens was held during the third hour on September 24.

Each girl received a folder which explained the purpose and activities of the organization.

Mrs. Schmidt introduced Miss Eleanor Swain of the Y. W. C. A., and she told the group about the various projects in which the Y-Teens take part.

Miss Swain stated that there are 300,000 Y-Teen members in the U. S. She also said that all of the city high schools and several county schools have Y-Teen membership.

Those girls who were definitely interested in becoming members were asked to register the week of September 29. Eight girls, Carolyn Walsh, Cathy McNerney, Theresa Morozowski, Alyce Peterson, Marilyn Manion, Norma Smith, Sue Stemen, and Janet Michalski, were chosen as volunteers to help with the registration. To help Miss Swain in the sponsoring of the Y-Teen group Mrs. Barber and Mrs. Goheen will be the sponsors.

The girls at Washington-Clay are happy to have the opportunity of becoming a part of the international organization that has as its worthy purpose: To grow as a person; To grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and creeds; To grow in the knowledge and love of God.

Hi-SCHOOL SHOPPER

By Jo

Style conscious high school boys create fashions as well as follow them.

This year there are many wonderful and colorful sport jackets to choose. The shell or outer material of a light weight gabardine, cotton, poplin, linen or rayon. Cold weather jackets have heavier shells of wool, gabardine, tweed, corduroy or blends of nylon and rayon.

Some have wool or pile linings. Synthetic fibers, nylon and orlon, have brought down the price on many fabrics and added to textile strength.

Leather jackets have earned popularity with their great warmth and ruggedness. There is a new interest in suede, especially in the Midwest. This soft-rich leather is no longer in the luxury class. It is warm, light in weight and tailors well.

The classic short golfer jacket with zippered front, knitted cuffs, and waist band is now coupled with a bright quilted or plaid lining and new collar types. Fur collars, real or synthetic, come on camel-colored wool or gabardine knee-length surcoats as well as in the regular or full-length stadium coat. This collegiate favorite is now available in a single-breasted tweed model as well as in the belted trench coat.

To insure long and satisfactory service, the better jackets have a surable spot and water repellency which will last through six or eight dry cleanings or washings, depending on the severity of the laundering operation. Practically all synthetic and blends have a crease resistant finish, which means that the fabric will tend to hold the original crease and resist new ones. Good jacket tailoring means not only full-cut chest and shoulders, but a smoothly lying collar, unpuckered seams and generous sleeves. When shopping remember that you'll likely be wearing a sweater under your jacket from time to time, so leave room for it. The most popular colors are tan, brown, blue and gray.

Gabardine is the favorite material for slacks. Other favorites are flannels, worsteds, coverts, rayon blends and corduroys. In shirts, preference runs to spread collars, with buttoned-down second.

Sport shirts are varied in types, with about half being in the long-sleeve model. Argyle socks are preferred everywhere, with allegiance to anklets and medium lengths equally divided.

V-necks in solid colored sweaters are the national choice with the weight depending on the climate.

Plain toed shoes are the favorites in all sections, followed by wing-tips, casual slip-ons, buck and saddle oxfords.

HERBIE HAS 100%

Herbie Bressette is the number one salesman in Washington-Clay High this year. Herb's home room, 12-1's, hit 100% in the recent Colonial subscription drive. A big hand of applause goes to this home room and all the others that helped make this drive a big success. Second highest home room agent was Arlene Perry with 88% for 10-3's. Great going kids! !

By Barb and Ruth

Say Bob Hoover, what was on your ear in Study Hall? Mousey, Mousey!

It seems Danny Augh really had some party. Lots of things to gossip about. No lights and so on.

We hear Elsie Greenwood can really write the letters. Huh, Larry Bishop?

Notice to Mary Bayer, Nancy Kleinrichert, Sherlyn Serene and Shirley Milliken: Jim Colley won't even be 15 until January. Sorry! Try later!

It seems a certain Adams guy goes out with other people, too. Huh, Sharon Bates! Does Donna Stone know anything about this?

Marilyn De Bois can't seem to tell which seat is her's in 5th hour Study Hall. What's the trouble — lonesick or something?

Why did Judy Colip's father call from the neighbors during the party? Did he think you'd blown a fuse! I wonder? ?

Who is it Loretta Dell? Mike or Butch. Let's hear more! ! ! !

So Norma Smith and Howard Bashore are seeing eye to eye again. Better luck next time Arlene Gogley.

We hear Yvonne Schryer doesn't know the difference between a liter and liter. Say Vonnie!

Carolyn Walsh is back this year. Glad to see her back. All of us, huh, boys! !

Randy Grounds won't even give Clay a chance. It's Mishawaka all the way.

If Shirley Milliken and Jack Humphrey are like brother and sister the hayride sure wouldn't prove it.

Where is Mary Bayer's mind this year. Could it be at Purdue University? ? Could be!

Who is it Nancy Kleinrichert just wants to be friends with? Don't you know! ! !

Say kids, let's all be getting dates for the Senior Dance. it's only a few weeks off. So get ready for a bang-up time. Come on kids. Let's go with that gossip. Don't play it so cool. We know you know plenty. So out with it. No one will know where we got it. Not even us sometimes. So if you want more gossip you'll have to see, hear, and tell more. To us naturally. Until next time see what can be done. O.K. We'll see you then. Bye for now.

ATTENTION FRESHMEN

By Marilyn Manion

The Colonial needs more Freshmen writers on its staff to cover Freshmen activities and to represent their class. We want someone who is interested in staying on it permanently; remember that in a few years you will have charge of the Colonial yourselves!

There are openings for almost every type of article, so if you have any ideas, don't hesitate to write them down. You might not get an article in the first time, but then again you might. So we'll be expecting to see a lot of you freshmen at the next Colonial meeting.

Sugar 'n Spice!

By Maggie & Judy

This is a brand new article which we hope you will enjoy reading. It's for the "fellas and gals," so, if you don't find anything for you in particular in the first few lines, keep on reading because you're bound to run across some little tip which you'll probably be able to use. The idea is to try to help you improve yourself. Don't quit on us now because everyone can find some small fault in his or her grooming and etiquette that, when overcome, will make them a better person. Look for interviews along the way to find the pet peeves of some of the guys and gals.

Sheila Daly, the specialty columnist for teenagers, has a suggestion for shy people. She says that "grooming is undoubtedly the number one factor in gaining confidence."

The reason that we sneaked into this space is that we might spread the news on good grooming. If your skin is clean all over and your hair healthy and shining, you know that you have started on the right track, but to get aboard the gravy train, you should look in your closet. Are your shoes polished like a mirror? That goes for the girls, too! The senior boy whom you frosh girls have your eyes on is never seen without a "glow in the dark" shine on his shoes. It's lots easier to keep them shining if you use a little "elbow grease" after each wearing.

One columnist brought up this proof. It seems that men and boys don't care to see those dingy, finger marked powder puffs! Who can blame them? Besides, it's bad business for those complexions! Scrub all you like, but if you use a soiled powder puff, you're making more work for yourself.

Incidentally, fellas, if you have a crew cut, then keep it that way! Some boys are seen walking down the hall with enough excess crew cut to make up for the girls' short hair cuts.

Girls! Winter isn't far away in spite of the warm days that we've been having, so start looking to your hands. They're the laurels that you want to keep. Smooth, soft hands get that way by being "cared for with lotions." Now, fellas, you're going to say this is sissy, but it isn't. The girls take such pains to keep their hands feeling like the skin you love to touch. Why not go easy on us and soften up those big paws of yours, too? Chapped skin hurts, but a little care is worth a month of chapped skin.

For our first interview, the fella is going to be an unattached Senior, so that we can find his viewpoint on the girls around school. Maybe he'll see something we've overlooked. Jerry Walton is that fella. He said that he doesn't like people who are loudmouths. In other words, people who are always spouting off about themselves. Perhaps it doesn't have anything to do with good grooming directly but personality is definitely a reflection of a person's grooming.

Yvonne Schryer very definitely said that she can't stand extremely tapered pants. Vonnie has a point there, fellas. Good grooming is good taste, also, and any extreme fad or fashion is a sour note in good grooming. Tapered pants are really swell, but let's not overdo a good thing.

DO YOUR PART

Once more the Tuberculosis League is sponsoring the annual Health Cross pin sale, at Notre Dame. Saturday, October 11, is the first game, followed by October seventeenth.

The money received from the sale of these pins will go to the Milk Fund, which buys milk for school children whose parents can not afford it.

Any girl of high school age may enter this selling contest. She may sell alone or with a team. A team is usually made up of ten girls, but there is no limit to the number of teams a school can send out.

A prize is given to the team bringing in the most money. If you would like to sell, see Nancy Kleinrichert or Kenny Wisler for further information.

MEET YOUR TEAM

By Dick Hofferbert

I decided to deviate from my regular pattern of interviewing an individual person on the various teams this week. Instead, since their season is so short, I am going to introduce to you the entire first string football team. On offense there are as follows: Raymond Snyder, fullback; Phillip Holcomb, left halfback; Jack Ingle, right halfback; Larry Bishop, quarterback; Tom Patrick, left end; Carl Nye, left tackle; Paul Kubsch, left guard; Carl Romine, center; Peter Thompson, right guard; Tom Leister, right tackle; Tim Rich, right end. Then on defense there are: Phillip Holcomb, left halfback; Larry Bishop, fullback; Tom Patrick, right halfback; Alex Isza and Raymond Snyder, safety men; Peter Thompson, line backer; Bob Romine, left end; John Zimmerman, left tackle; Wilson Miller, center guard; Norbert Hintz, right tackle, and Phillip Stanage, right end.

You will notice that none of the above boys are seniors. The reason for this is Coach Landry is not planning for a top team this season, but rather is shaping a championship team for years to come.

Carolyn Walsh says that blue jeans on an informal date are out with her except around the picnic grounds or sports fields. A date is more enjoyable with an attractive companion dressed according to the occasion, perhaps not expensively, but by all means neatly and suitably.

Kenny Wisler likes neat hair. He didn't say long or short, but he did say neat, girls. Careful shampooing and care for scalps can make your hair shining. To keep it neat is only a matter of finding one or two becoming hairdos so that you can alternate them. Lots of brushing will train your hair to lie down and keep sleek looking.

Next week we'll have more good hints for you to hunt. Any suggestions directed our way will be used immediately. Till next issue, we hope you'll be concentrating on making good first impressions on good grooming.

For our last hint: the fireman wears red suspenders to keep his pants up, not for fashion fads!

OGLESBY HEADS NEW WASHINGTON JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Harry E. Oglesby, with a staff of nineteen teachers and two custodians, under the administration of Hans Mohn, trustee of Clay township, heads the New Washington Junior High School.

The enrollment of the seventh and eighth grades is now set at 283, and the fifth and sixth grades, 271. The junior high is departmentalized with the following teachers: Mr. Agness, Mr. Bauman, Mrs. Burkhard, Mrs. Deardorff, Mr. Fick, Miss Huepenbecker, Mr. Hughes, Mrs. Landry, Mr. Rogers, Mrs. Schmucker and Miss Wisnieski.

The fifth and sixth grade teachers are Mrs. Isenbarger, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Pearson, Mr. Shearer, Mrs. Schultz, Mrs. Scheler, Mrs. Schreffler, and Mr. Sampson.

Before this year, due to limited facilities, the seventh and eighth grades took only the regular subject matter courses. Now it is possible to offer, in addition to English, history, math, geography, and science, courses in home economics for girls, shop for boys, band, chorus, and physical education for both boys and girls. In the field of sports, a full program of softball, basketball, and track will be carried out.

A further curriculum enlargement will consist of school sponsored clubs such as the Audubon Junior Club. Educational movies during the noon hour every other week on Monday and full length movies each month will help round out the program.

CAFETERIA

The cafeteria, under the direction of Mrs. Anita Landry, is functioning at full capacity and feeding 150 students each day. Mrs. Landry, it seems, hopes to furnish her husband with some good future footballers.

JUNIOR HIGH SOCK HOP

The members of the Washington Junior High PTA wish to announce that there will be a sock hop in the junior high gym, October 17 from 8 to 11. Jane and John Nice will do the calling and they are good. There will be refreshments—barbecue, pop and coffee at a price, of course.

The admission prices are children—25c; adults—50c.

Restrictions, oh yes, come prepared to do dancing in crepe soled shoes, bowling shoes or even stocking feet.

The Junior High sports review appears on page 4 of this issue, as it will in all future issues.

LIBRARY

The library, under the direction of Roy Rogers with the help of teachers and students, has made a fair beginning. With the removal of the high school library, the shelves were left nearly bare. But before the year is over, it is hoped that the shelves will be replenished with good, readable books. For the month of September the library circulated over eighteen hundred books.

ENTHUSIASTIC SUPPORTERS

The Washington - Clay High School, in its new quarters, may rest assured that the members of the faculty and the students of Washington Junior High School will always be loyal supporters of the high school programs.

Mr. Oglesby, along with the members of the faculty and the students, appreciates the space that has been set aside in each issue of the Colonial for the activities of the Junior High School.

6-4's SEPTEMBER PARTY

By Millicent Sarich

From the very start my class, the 6-4's, and my teacher, Mrs. Pearson, were very delighted with our health book, "You and Others."

Our class read Unit I of "You and Others." Most of Unit I was about a party. Then our teacher made a suggestion. She said, "Why don't we have a party dramatize Unit I."

The hosts and hostesses were Ted Owen, Edwin McCain, Rosa Miller and Norma Rupert. The musicians were Judy Stone, Jane Stull and Patrick Patesel. The dance was the Virginia Reel. The dancers were: Marjorie Rand, Janice Mead, Karen Stephans, Millinet Sarich, Ronald Nicodemus, Tommy Knapik, Bernard Rucker and Richard Stickler.

The people that served were: Barbara Palmer, Marjorie Rand, Glory-lynn Stevens and Millicent Sarich.

The refreshments were cookies and cupcakes. The guests were Mr. Oglesby and Mrs. Carbiener.

The girls and boys had hats and baskets the class had made.

SHOP

Teddy Hughes, (smile boys when you say it), prefers to be called Ted by his fellow faculty members. In World War II he was a paratrooper in a tough outfit. Mr. Hughes has a very sensible shop program underway.

EXPERIMENT WITH RATS IN FIFTH GRADE

By Curtiss Tam

The fifth grades of the Jr. High School are getting some white rats. They are going to experiment. They will feed one a balanced diet. The other will be fed an unbalanced diet. This will help them learn, by actually seeing, what would happen to them if they continually ate the wrong kind of food.

BAND AND CHORUS

Miss Wisnieski, one of our new teachers, is doing some fine, basic music work with the students.

N. C. C. J. INSTITUTE TO BE HELD AT CLAY

The National Conference of Christians and Jews is sponsoring a fall institute which will be held Friday, October twenty-fourth, at Washington-Clay.

Teenagers from all over the county will send representatives to this institute. The idea of the institute is to present teen-age problems. The teen-agers will discuss these problems in small informal groups. Now is the time to get the views of other teens and perhaps solve your own problems.

COLONIALS VS. TIGERS

In their third game of the season the Colonials fought to an 8-7 win over New Carlisle.

In the first inning New Carlisle made a fast start by scoring a run off a hit by Adusen.

The game proceeded to the end of the fourth when we started a rally. Stone was first man up and got to base on balls. He was followed by Ullery who slammed out a double. Don Hardy, the Colonial hurler, went out on a line drive to the shortstop.

Dan Izdepski took first on an error and then came Chuck Lang, who took second on an error made by the third baseman. The third baseman had thrown over the head of the first baseman. This drove in three runs. Dudley made first on a hit to centerfield and then took third on an error by the second baseman as Chuck Lang scored. Don Dudley scored as John Magera grounded out for the second out. Pitcher Dick Jones of the Tigers struck out Dan Izdepski to retire the side.

The game went fast as the Colonials racked up five more runs in the last three innngs.

FIRST FOOTBALL GAME

The first football game of the season showed our excellent team spirit and highlighted some great individual play. The crowd cheered our squad even as they went to a seven to nothing loss.

The only score in the game came in the second quarter when John Adams' "B" team scored a touchdown on a well-executed long pass play. The ball was snapped to the quarterback who pitched out to the left halfback. The halfback threw a thirty yard pass to the left end who ran it over for a touchdown.

At the beginning of the game, there was a slight Michigan dew, which lasted through the first half. Just as the half ended the rain began coming down in torrents. This lasted for nearly twenty minutes. About ten minutes after the rain let up the game proceeded.

In the next twenty-nine minutes of play the ball changed hands a number of times without a score. So ended the first game of a three game season.

CLAY BEATS EDWARDSBURG

On the first play of the game Satch Holcomb ran an off tackle play touchdown. Larry Bishop scored the extra point on a quarterback sneak.

The first half ended with the Clay eleven on the heavy end of a 26-0 score.

The second, third, and fourth touchdowns were scored by Isza, Holcomb, and Snyder, consecutively.

Later, in the last quarter, Larry Bishop, the quarterback, called a long pass play. He faded back for the pass but was rushed quickly.

He started running and managed to evade six of the Edwardsburg eleven, the other five being blocked out of the play by Washington-Clay men. He ran it for the last score of the game.

In the top of the 7th the Tigers fought to get more runs, but did not succeed. In the lower half of the 7th the Colonials came back. Ron Dawson led off with a single. Don Findley's fly was caught.
