Concerning Departing Seniors

By Jeanne Heath

It is not hard to close one door when you have a bigger one to open. If the senior class seems to be just drifting along, it is because the majority of them are anxious to open their particular doors and see if they can stay on the other side. (cont. p.2)

Jeanne, Carol, Nancy, Cynthia, Dan, Bob

He is: Sports Editor of the Spartan, Captain of 1965 Cross Country team, J.A. President of "Roxco," a marshal.
He has: an acceptance to Bentley, a junior sister, a bent marshal badge, a pizza stained pool table.
He likes: June 7, food, Kate, Stones, Mr. Marx's pro golfing tips and used gold balls $5 a dozen.
He dislikes: school lunches, not getting accepted to Harvard, people who join teams and quit two days later, poetry.
Pet Peeve: losing meets by one or two points.
Ambition: to become an accountant.
Advice: study, study, study.
Name: Dan Henry

She is: Lay Out Editor for the Spartan, director of the Pinky Lee Dance Studio, a marshal, in A Cappella, a procrastinator, and loony.
She has: a laugh like a crow, a scholarship, E.S.P., a retarded dog, and enough friends to start a new country.
She wants: elevator shoes, to meet Sybil Leek, and a red volkwagon.
She likes: Gregorian chants, Time, to laugh, Marconi's, books, Howdy Doody, and chianti bottles (empty).
She dislikes: always laughing at the wrong time.
Pet Peeve: Anything over five feet.
Ambition: To do research and to function in the field of Audiology and Speech Pathology (for children).
Name: Jeanne Heath

He is: News Editor of the Spartan, a marshal, one of Happy's Boys, and an active C.Y.O. member.
He likes: convertibles, a specific settings in Humarock, sharp clothes, ranking R. Reed, pizza, and girls in general.
He dislikes: "Lemons," losing in anything, everyday routine, homework, and too many questions.
Pet Peeve: Social climbers.
Ambition: Attend the University of Arizona.
Name: Bob Hooper

She is: Spartan Feature Editor, extremely verbose, a member of the Junior Classical League, National Honor Society, USY, GAC, MC, Orchestra, and a rebel.
She has: Wonderful parents, a talented sister and brother, Spoofer, bad luck, a return engagement at the Carousel, memories, an understanding guidance counselor, and 430 lollipops.
She wants: A rewarding college experience, to right the world's wrongs, understanding among peoples and nations, a junior year abroad, new rosin, and for Paul to laugh more often.
She likes: Bill Russell's beard, the efficient organized way the Spartan is produced, the picture of J.C.L. before cropping, Miss Joseph's yellow coat, kumquats and kreplach.

She dislikes: Ultra naivety, bigots, the fishy odor of Portland cafeteria frosting, Brandeis's attitude, lack of time to practice her guitar, violin, or piano, detours, and any one or anything phony.

Pet Peeve: Remembering "Show and Tell" comes every Friday.

Ambition: A career in either law or language

Name: Carol Seavey

She is: Ed-in-Chief of your favorite periodical, Jr. Class (?) representative of IRC, member of NHS, JCL, and French Club.

She has: three dogs, a four inch bullet (Some girls get flowers I get bullets!) about 200 old newspapers, millions of memories, a guitar she can't play, definite ideas and crazy-type fun.

She likes: people, Mary Poppins, "Maria" and the gang, A.F.S., vacation, "La Grosse Valise," long rides, dancing, Johnny Mathis, Boston, Lorina, Yum Yum and Ginger.

She dislikes: lamb chops, frustration, depressing movies, waiting, being late, Spartan deadlines, busy work.

She wants: to understand certain people, to be understood, happiness.

Pet Peeve: surprise visitors!

Advice: Don't waste time worrying, regretting, or envying, laugh instead-it's fun!

Ambition: Simmons, and a career in social work

Name: Nancy Siegel

She is: very confused, going to learn, a witch, mechanically inclined, in LOVE, editorially deficient, going to visit M. Bouchard and the boys, not a duchess, dominated by Susan.

She has: two friends, a diamond cigarette holder, a job, long fingernails, a curfew, "big feet, and big hands," little time, iron-poor blood, no senior thesis, a new hair band, long legs, 20% discount, a few problems.

She likes: Basketball, happenings, George's Folly, Boston University, rainy Sundays, getting presents, her family, Miss Nichols, chocolate ice-cream, Femme, Susan's happiness, Rhonda's brain.

She dislikes: Detention, red hair, Corvairs, making excuses, four saccharines, proms, acne, people who aren't prompt, the student parking lot, and APE.

Ambition: to have an ambition.

She wants: too many things.

Pet Peeve: procrastination.

Advice: life is for living; don't take it too seriously.

For the purpose of planning and executing various senior class activities, Mrs. Mary Faherty, class adviser, has assisted our Senior Steering Committee.

Mrs. Faherty has contributed to a successful prom, Variety Show, and Senior Class Play. She has devoted much time and effort from which we, as a class, have greatly profited.

Many thanks go to Mr. Zecker and the Business and Advertising Staff who sold the sponsors that support our newspaper and year-book.

When you receive the Archon at class-night, you'll know who are responsible for the greatest yearbook ever: Sue Partnow, Lee Askin, Linda Saunders, Barbara Carley, Linda Gerhart, Robert Cotton, Mary Lombard, and Marsha Leavitt.

The backbone of the yearbook, that is, those who write all those nice things under your name are the members of the Biography and Verse Staff. Shown are Marietta Patterson, Vera Sue Taylor, Krista Swanson, and Marsha Leavitt, editor.

We also thank the senior marshals for not letting us go down the up staircase, holding our doors, preventing jaywalking in general, for directing traffic on assembly days, and especially for guiding our parents on Open House night.

The SPARTAN is very different from other school newspapers because, from beginning to end, it is produced in the school. We at FNHS are fortunate to have our own off-set printing press and we extend many thanks to Mr. Hohn. Mark Kaplan, Jamie Gagen, Joe McManus, Bill Lewis

Mr. Carney and the senior SPARTAN reporters have worked carefully and steadily throughout the year. These reporters are:
 Adeline Alex, Charles Andelman, David Bel-four, Carole Bertozzi, and Barbara Carley.

Needless to say, Mrs. Spita and the Senior Production Staff have worked prudently and shown endless patience when working on a tight schedule. A special thanks to Mrs.
 Spita, Dottie Cavicchio (editor), Joan Ar-

Our Class Officers:
 President, Paul Fiske;
 Vice President, Tim
 Berringer; Secretary,
 Pam Britinell; Treasurer, Linda Saunders.
 Along with the Steering Committee, these students have planned
 and organized our class activities and functions during this past year.

The Senior Members
 of the Student Council are the coordinating
 body of the school,
 through which all activities, dates of activities, and functions must be approved. The permanent duties of the council are the running of the annual football dance, candy sale, and Christmas project. The Steering Committee also assists in such matters as class elections, assemblies,
 rules, and money raising projects.

Majorettes

Senior majorettes are interested in baton twirling and precision dancing. Together with the cheerleaders and band, they appeared at all athletic activities of the school.

Cheerleaders

These energetic girls have performed their routines at football, basketball, and hockey games, as well as at school rallies. They are "morale boosters" of our Spartan athletes.
