

TOLO SPECIAL

TOLO Special

Fort Vancouver High

Feb. 20, 1967

PRINCE JOHN

PRINCE RON

PRINCE GERRY

PRINCE BILL

PRINCE RICK

TOLO ROYALTY PROCLAIMED

Seniors Bill Brouhard, John Cortese, Ron Porterfield, Gerry Swafford, and Rick Zoller were dubbed 'prince' and pronounced the royal court for the Girls' League's annual TOLO Dance, "Lollipops and Roses," during an assembly last Friday. The royal five were elected by members of the Senior Class and will vie for the votes of "Lollipops and Roses" attendants. One of the princes will be regally enthroned as the TOLO King at the dance Saturday night.

BILL?

"Red" roses and "peppermint" lollipops are soft-spoken Bill's preference, and well-rounded might best describe his interests. Bill's athletic abilities have been demonstrated in football, basketball, track and tennis. An active member of Lettermen's Club, National Honor Society, and Spanish Club, Bill also enjoys singing in the A cappella choir.

JOHN?

Sports-minded John has been a valuable member of Fort's football, wrestling, and track teams, having won the "Most Inspirational Player" award in football and serving as captain of the wrestling team. John is vice president of the Lettermen's Club and an active member of Hi-Y. Displaying his unique taste, John names "sour lemon" as his favorite flavor of lollipop and "black or blue" as his favorite color of rose.

RON?

Ron's activities have involved him in almost all aspects of school life--music, athletics, and student government. A delegate to Boys' State, Ron is capably serving as Senior Class Vice President and he has been his advisory president. Ron is also a member of the Swing Choir and A cappella. "Red" roses seem to catch Ron's fancy, and his favorite flavor of lollipop is "peppermint."

GERRY?

As King of Lollipops and Roses, Gerry would be apt to proclaim "chocolate mint" lollipops and "orange" roses the royal symbols. However, in real life, he's had to stick to normal activities, such as baseball, student government, Lettermen's Club, and Spanish Club. Gerry has also been a member of the boys' rally and student council, and he has served as an advisory president.

RICK?

Rick has a fancy for roses, especially those of a "dark red" color (in flowers, that is!) and his favorite flavor lollipop is peppermint. Rick is a member of the National Honor Society, and has served as president of the organization during the past semester. Fort's renowned swimming team elected Rick as their team captain, and with his impressive time in the 100-yard breast stroke, he will compete in the state prep swimming meet. As a member of Lettermen's Club, German Club, and the Interclub Council, Rick has a well-rounded slate of interests.

Trappers Susie Millar and Dav Disbrow display TOLO attire. (OLE FOTO)

Trappers Draw Stares As G.L. Decrees Obeyed

TOLO Week got off to a flying start today as Trappers showed their creativity as well as their decorated knees.

All Fort students were asked to wear knee make-up today, and to enable the boys to exhibit their talents, the dress for the day is casual. For a little added incentive to participate in the day's activities, the Girls' League, TOLO sponsor, has decided to have a Miss Legs and a Mr. Knees chosen. Instead of the drab, ordinary paperbag that most students use to carry their lunch, today, students were asked to bring a lunch pail.

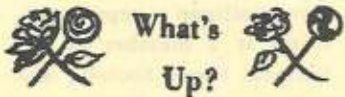

Tuesday, all boys will be required to wear long, short, or medium sized earrings, while girls will wear decorative garters.

Following a brief vacation, Trappers will return to school Thursday, and in keeping with the TOLO tradition of turning the tables, girls will become the slaves of the boys. The feminine half of the Fort Vancouver student body will be subjected to further suffering by being denied the privilege of speaking to their masculine masters. The boy who is the most irresistible to these tongue-tied Trapper maids will be given the title "Mr. Irresistible."

Girls who like Wheaties and boys who carry a comb with at least one tooth should have little trouble complying with the Girls' League's suggestions for dress on Friday. The guys will be allowed to comb their hair in the true "Our Gang" fashion—parted down the middle, and the girls will be allowed to replace their oversized purses and their undersized suitcases with any size cereal box, although most girls will select the economy size.

TOLO Days Activities will come to a close with the TOLO Assembly. An impartial Kangaroo Court will pass judgement on naughty Trappers who forget to observe the Girls' League's decrees.

- Feb. 20--Casual dress
Knee make-up
Carry lunch pails
- Feb. 21--Earrings for boys
Garters for girls
- Feb. 22--Washington birthday
No school
- Feb. 24--Cereal box purses
for girls
Center parts for boys
Tolo Assembly
Bay Game
- Feb. 25--Tolo Dance

Editor.....	Elaine Settles
Assistant Editor.....	Paula Carter
Reporters.....	Kathy Butler Susie Millar Libby Vining Paula Wikstrom
Typists.....	Paula Carter Elaine Settles
Artists.....	Dav Disbrow Rebecca Gee
Girls' League President.....	Louanna Lynch

Tolo Credits

Anticipation Increases As TOLO Dance Draws Near

by Libby Vining

On the eve of Feb. 25, as the clock strikes half past eight Fort's cafetorium will bloom "Lollipops and Roses," as couples gather for the Girls' League annual Tolo dance.

As guests arrive in their "Sunday best", amid a colorful array of lollipops, balloons and boughs laden with paper roses, they will be greeted by the welcoming sounds of Jim Little's five piece band.

The doors will remain open until 9:30 p.m., after which only those with special permission may enter. Soon after the polls will close and the ballot cast by each couple upon entrance to the dance will be tallied to determine which of the five Tolo princes will reign. Throughout the evening, refreshments of cookies and punch will be served, and pictures will be taken for $2.

Entertainment, beginning at 10:15, will be David Pool, a classical guitarist who arranges his own music. The climax of the evening will follow when the Tolo Court will be introduced and the 1967 Tolo King will be crowned by Girls' League President Louanna Lynch.

Present for the occasion, as chaperones, will be Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clausen, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Frost, and Mr. and Mrs. Del McLaughlin.

The festivities will come to a close at 11:30.

Rousing parade urges students to attend TOLO Dance.

(BENY PHOTO)

Hard-working Committees Insure Success of TOLO

Hours of hard work and weeks of busy preparation will soon be rewarded as the many events of Fort's annual TOLO Week unfold.

Louanna Lynch, Girls' League President, is head chairman for the event-filled week and has been overseeing all the planning of activities.

Supervising the four days of TOLO Week is Kathy Scurlock, who will work cooperatively with Karen Zimmermen, publicity; Gail Boroz, skits; Linda Masic, TOLO Court; Elaine Settles, TOLO paper; and Marie Brillante, TOLO Assembly.

Rebecca Gee is in charge of creating decorations, which will depict the theme for the event, "Lollipops and Roses." She will work with Kathy Jacobson, tickets; Susan Asplin, programs; Kathy Mesick, refreshments; Sue Kimsey, chaperones; Judy Hotner, entertainment; Carolyn Wilen, pictures; Sandy Kimsey and Sharon Wilson, music; and Glenda Bacon, clean-up.