

TOTO SPECIAL

Prince Ron Rokoce

A MAN FOR ALL SEASONS

Prince Mike Moreland

Prince Mike Borge

Prince Mark Lanier

Senior girls found it hard to decide who would be this year's Tolo Court. Their final decision was announced in the assembly on Jan. 26, as five Senior girls escorted princes Ron Rokoce, Mark Lanier, Mike Moreland, Don Rash and Mike Borge to the stage.

DON

Active for three years in school government, Prince Don Rash has served as Sophomore Class Rep., Boy's League Sec-Tres, and is presently Boy's League president.

Blue-eyed, six-foot Don earlier played on the varsity football team and is recently a member of Tawanka and Lettermen's Club. He professes summer as his favorite season. Friendliness and a sense of humor are just a few of Don's well-liked traits.

MIKE

Good-natured, shy, blue-eyed and 5'9" describes Prince Mike Moreland. He is athletically-minded and his physique shows his love for track, swimming and volleyball. He led football crowds while on boys' varsity rally and he belongs to Spanish Club and Student Senate.

Prince Don Rash

When asked about his favorite season, Mike romantically replied "Spring," but with a Cheshire grin added, "cus that's track season."

RON

His love for basketball, football and baseball keeps good-looking, brown-eyed Prince Ron Rokoce athletically occupied every season of the year. Despite this he finds time in summer, his favorite season, to enjoy the sun and water skiing. When he is not busy practicing, Ron is an active member of Hi-Y and resides as Vice-President of Lettermen's Club.

MARK

To many people Prince Mark Lanier is a "sweet, unabashed kind of fellow," but his freckles give Mark some impish qualities few people realize he has. Mark is all male . . . He is co-captain of the swim team, a Hi-Y and Lettermen's Club member, and student body commissioner. Because of his love for sun and water, Prince Mark chose summer as his favorite season.

MIKE

Senior Class President Mike Borge is a rugged sportsman. Although only 5'7", roguish Prince Mike is active in all sports and pursues all activities. He likes every season because "there's football" in the fall, "Christmas and skiing" in the winter, "flowers, sun and track" in the spring, and "no school" in the summer.

The 1968 Tolo Court is revealed as (from left to right) princes Ron Rokoce, Mark Lanier, Mike Moreland, Don Rash and Mike Borge are escorted into the spotlight. (OLE PHOTO)

Assembly Reveals Royal Five To Rule Over Tolo Activities

Whispers of anticipation echoed through Fort's auditorium Jan. 26 as Girls' League President Judi Dreier stepped on stage to introduce the 1968 Tolo Court.

Escorts Cheryl LeCount, Becky Lee, Marie Brillante, Sally Betting and Ginger Hale were given sealed envelopes, each with a prince's name inside. As the pep band provided background music, each escort searched for "her" prince in the audience.

Princes Mike Borge, Mark Lanier, Mike Moreland, Ron Rokoce and Don Rash were escorted to the stage and presented with red carnation boutineers.

The five princes now await the Tolo Dance Feb. 10, when one will be crowned King.

Tolo Dance Approaches

Joyous exclamations, hushed whispers and frowns of frustration are all apparent throughout Fort's halls as the Tolo Dance draws near. This climaxing Tolo event will take place in Fort's cafetorium Feb. 10 from 8:30 pm. to 11 pm.

Upon arriving at the Tolo Dance, each couple will be engulfed by the music of Jim Little's Band, providing entertainment throughout the entire evening. The cafetorium will be transformed into a wonder-land amidst decorations representing the four seasons of the year. During the intermission the Tolo Court will be presented and the king of "A Man For All Seasons" will be crowned.

With an admission price of $1.50 per couple, the dance will be open to all Fort students.

Trappers Draw Stares For Crazy Tolo Attire

This year's Tolo Week will prove to be a memorable one for many Trappers as they are given the chance to display their creativity.

Each day of the week will coincide with this year's theme "A Man for All Seasons". The days are designated to go along with the year's four seasons and a major holiday that occurs in each season. There will still be the traditional turning of the tables in which the girls will be the boys' servants.

All Fort students are to wear orange and black on Monday to depict Halloween and fall. Girls wear pigtails and carry trick or treat sacks for purses. Boys wear shoes without socks and jewelry (hippie beads).

Tuesday will bring Christmas and winter as everyone decks out in red and green. Scenes such as stocking hats and neckscarves will be viewed throughout the day.

Another popular winter holiday among love-struck teenagers is Valentine's Day which will be illustrated on Wednesday. Costumes will be red and white accented with hearts and arrows.

All Fort's "Flower Children" will be delighted on Thursday.

Everyone will be wearing pastel colors and carrying flowers.

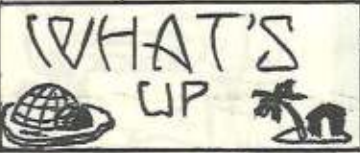

Trappers will enjoy "summer for a day" on Friday when they will don breezy sandals and gay sunglasses. In honor of the fourth of July they will also wear red, white and blue clothing.

Flower girl Marie Brillante models Tolo attire.

Tolo week activities will come to a close with the Tolo assembly on Friday. An impartial Kangaroo Court will pass judgement on naughty Trappers who refused to observe the Girls' League decrees.

- Feb. 5-Orange and black attire;
Girls: pigtails and trick or treat sacks for purses. Boys: shoes without socks.
6-Red and green attire; stocking hat, jingle bells or neck scarf
Battleground-Here
7-Red and white attire; heart or heart and arrow
8-Pastel-colored clothes; carry or wear flowers
9-Red, white and blue attire; sandals or sunglasses
Tolo Assembly
Columbia River-There
10-Tolo Dance

Exhibiting Monday's Tolo styles, Joe and Mary Trapper pause for a picture.

Hard-Working G.L. Committees Prepare For Annual Tolo Week

Preparations for the annual Tolo activities during the week of Feb. 5 have kept the Girls' League officers and representatives busy for the past few weeks.

Under the direction of Girls' League President Judi Dreier, the officers have chosen various committees to prepare for the coming week of events. Busy organizing the Kangaroo Court are Sue Kemp and Ruth Ternes. Kris Strohmeier and Cathy Noce selected the spies who will be on the lookout for forgetful Trappers who violate the Tolo laws. Heading their respective committees in preparations are Carla Vilhauer, court; and Val Unholz, chaperones.

Other committee chairman working toward the success of the Tolo Dance Feb. 10 are Kathy Scurlock, pictures; Karen Hudnall, programs; Carole Porter, Hazel Evans and Denni Mathews, decorations; Karen Shaffer, cloak-room; Vicki Armstrong, refreshments; Connie Masic, tickets; and Cheri Gnadt, clean-up.

TOLA CREDITS

| | |
|------------------------|---|
| Editor | Karen Andring |
| Co-editor | Glenda Schweigert |
| Reporters | Marie Brillante Jo Walz Vicki Armstrong Judy Walz |
| Artists | Tom Liston Grant Williams |
| Photographer | Dave Olson |
| Typists | Sandy Kimsey |
| Adviser | Helen Parker, Shari Burns, Marilyn Mattox, Debbie White Miss Mary Dickey |