Merry Christmas

and a Happy New Year! The Hi-Times staff hopes that you have a wonderful Christmas and a nice vacation. This issue is our Christmas card to you in appreciation for your support in the past year. We are looking forward to a bright new year and bringing you lots more Hi-Times.

Seniors Gather 6th Hr. For Christmas Party

Riley's seniors will gather in the cafeteria this afternoon 6th hour for a big Christmas party. Many of them will wear the traditional red bows, ties, suspenders, and other articles of clothing worn only by the senior class at Christmas time.

The party is under the direction of senior class officers and committee chairman. Jo Boxwell is refreshment committee chairman, Alice Torok is decorations chairman, Sue Lewis has assumed the responsibility of leading the seniors in singing Christmas carols. Susie LaBonte is in charge of gifts. The religious phase of the program will be conducted by Bonnie Fettel.

Senior band members will play carols as the group gathers for their last Christmas at Riley.

The seniors have a big event to look forward to after the holidays—the All City Prom on January 25 at the Indiana Club. To be eligible to go one member of each couple must be a senior in one of the four city high schools. Riley has charge of handling the tickets for this big event.

Cheering Section Added; Girls Accompany Cheers Sporting Colored Mittens

A big addition has been made to the Riley spirit and enthusiasm at basketball games. A group of sixty girls sporting white blouses and purple and gold mittens form a cheering block. The cheering block is another big step Riley has made in its efforts to boost the school. The group of senior, junior, and sophomore girls have been working extra hard on the perfection of certain motions to cheers which they do with the cheerleaders at every home basketball game. At their Washington game debut they were highly successful and every Riley fan who saw them in action couldn't help but feel proud of the showing they made.

Under the direction of Miss Mary Lauer and her cheerleaders the motions to cheers were planned by the girls themselves. A white blouse, rehearsals at least every Tuesday after school, being at Adams at 7:20 on game nights, and remaining in their seats during the half are some of the requirements and rules for the block.

The girls wear mittens that are purple on one side and gold on the other. By waving and turning the mittens many fine effects are created.

Here is a message from the cheerleaders: "We have been grateful for the fine support the student body has shown their teams this year. The cheering block is the first one of its kind in the city and we hope that you as the Riley backers will go along with the ever-improving attitude here by getting behind your teams even more and showing that we can be and are a pretty terrific school."

Music Contest To Be Held Here January 9; Students Practice Hard On Solos, Ensembles

by Barbara Nicklas

Music of all types will sound through Riley's halls January 9 from 4 p. m. to 9 p. m. when South Bend has its local music contest. Students from Riley, Adams, Central, Washington, and many other school will participate. Admission is free and everyone is invited.

The Riley Music Booster's Club will run refreshment stands and help with the contest.

This contest is a preliminary one to the district contest on February 2. The contestants must perform satisfactorily at this contest to be eligible for the district one. Each solo or ensemble is played before a judge who marks the players on different qualities.

Students playing solos from the orchestra are Eleanor Coffman, Judy Zeigler, Vangie Liechty, Everett Koontz, and Janice Weiss.

Glee Club Spreads Cheer By Christmas Program, TV Show

by Lyn Porter

The Glee Club's traditional Christmas program was presented yesterday and today to all Riley students. Under the direction of Miss Ruby L. Williams the entire glee club sang lots of beautiful Christmas songs.

Before the glee club's processional a brass sextette played favorite Christmas carols. Members of the sextette were Barb Morey, Terry Feidler, Graydon Reinoehl, Mike Mercer, Mike Miller, and David Puterbaugh.

The string orchestra played the processional song, "Angels We Have Heard on High." They also accompanied the glee club in Brahms' "Praise Him Evermore." "Toccata" by Giralamo Frescobaldi was a featured number of the entire orchestra.

TRIPS TO BANKS

Earlier in this busy week for the glee club a group of them traveled to the National Bank and the First Bank and Trust Company to "deposit" a large amount of Christmas cheer to the staff and customers.

Beginning before noon Tuesday an hour of Christmas songs was presented to these two banks by a selected group from the glee club. Some of the songs that were sung were: "A Joyous Christmas Song," "O Wondrous Night," "Fum, Fum, Fum," "Come Rise Up Early," "Glory to God," and "Carol of the Questioning Child."

The members that went to the bank were Charlene Sarka, Sue Lewis, Joan Postle, Linda Porter, Marjorie Parks, Sylvia Parks, Judy Kouts, Marilyn Keltner, Kay Dickey, Diana Srivver, Evelyn Skaret, Mark Minor, Robert Mahoney, Richard Holderman, Larry Zeiger, Larry Paegge, Tex Clark, Don Herr, Jerry Munger, Leon Copeland, and Jay Stahly.

Other glee club members spreading Christmas cheer were Richard Zillmer, Tom Madura, Marc Gantt, Jerry Tirrell, Janice Overmeyer, Diane Bender, Debby Thomas, Margie McPharlin, Lillian Porter, Alice Gentry, Sally Rasmussen, Nancy Pinney, Trudy Smith, Lynn VanGilder, Dolores Bauman, Judy Newhard, Lois Cunningham, Maureen Mahoney, Judy Johnson, Nancy Priddy, Carolyn Howes, and Karen King. Accompanists for the group are Beverly Bowers, Judy Horvath, and Aviva Weiss.

TELEVISION PROGRAM

Following the trip to the banks the same group appeared on WSBT-TV on "The Afternoon Show" where they presented the TV viewers with a similar program.

A new feature to Riley's Christmas celebration was added this year. The voices of the glee club were piped into all the rooms this morning while they sang Christmas carols in the senior glee club room.

The meaning of Christmas has been brought to us at Riley through the music presented by the glee club and orchestra.

Students Give $205 In Tuberculosis Seal Sale

The 1956 Christmas seal sale came to a close last Monday with the students purchasing $205.20 worth of seals. This falls short of last year's contribution of $241.33.

Two home rooms purchased a $10.00 bond signifying the purchase of $10.00 worth of seals. These rooms were 306 and 214. The 10th grade contributed $38.63, making it the top grade. The other grades and the money they collected were: 9th — $37.21, 11th — $35.48, 12th — $31.44, 8th — $30.80, and 7th — $29.82.

A goal of a $5 bond for every home room had been set. Those that reached their goal besides the two with $10 were 112, 301, 320, 315, 205, 220, 204, 208, 221, 322, 206, 109, 114, 202, 217.

Other soloists are Diana Collier, Sharyl Wolvos, Diana Stanic, Ann Klosinski, Carol Schille, Sara Anson, Charollette Downey, Aviva Weiss, and Bob Bargmeyer.

Duets will be played by Eleanor Coffman and Barbara Nicklas, Eleanor Coffman and Sara Anson, Barbara Nicklas and Vangie Liechty, Barbara Nicklas and Bonnie Bedwell, Judy Zeigler and Vangie Liechty, Judy Zeigler and Charles Stites, Everett Koontz and Sharyl Wolvos, Janice Weiss and Diana Collier, and Colleen Milliken and Ann Klosinski.

Charles Stites, Sharyl Wolvos, Charlette Downey, and Barbara Much will play a quartet.

Trios will be played by Judy Zeigler, Diana Collier, and Aviva Weiss and Everett Koontz, Sharyl Wolvos, and Barbara Much.

Greetings

Christmas Prayer

by Bonnie Bedwell

To live in a world free from strife,
With peace and happiness all our life,
To have our loved ones home each year,
No wars or anguish need we fear,
Is a dream within we all hold dear,
This is our prayer for Christmas.

That those we love know happiness,
Our homes and friends the Lord please bless,

To keep us free from sins and doubt,
And hold the evil darkness out —
To make us all sincere and devout, . . .
This is our prayer for Christmas.

To make the Lord smile over all,
To bless each one both large and small,
To bless even the tiny sparrow's fall,
This is our prayer for Christmas.

Suggestions For Gifts

by Carol Brewer

During the Christmas season everyone is rushing to and fro searching for appropriate gifts for their friends and relatives. Gift suggestions are usually quite welcome this time of year.

Listed below is a helpful guide for all bewildered Christmas shoppers.

For the fathers, I'm sure they'd be thrilled at receiving a fishing kit or a pipe set. Of course a counterfeiting machine would benefit us kids. Then Dad would raise our allowances.

Mothers could use a washer-dryer set, a living room rug, or maybe a small bag of peanuts. (Cashews if you're rich.)

Little sister would be overwhelmed at finding a Cashmere sweater under the tree. Something to keep her away from Mom's best jewelry would be a pair of strong handcuffs. (The key isn't included.)

Big brother could use a sideburn curler, a couple sport shirts, or you could always give him a gallon of gas to make up for the time you borrowed his car to go to the drug store for a piece of bubble gum.

The neighbor lady could use a pair of gloves, a box of rich candy, or a thick rope so she can "please" tie up her man-eating bulldog.

The paper boy would welcome three or four boxes of chewing gum or some peanut brittle. Due to my personal observation I think a pair of field glasses would come in handy. Then the evening paper might land on the porch instead of the flowerbed.

Grandfather could get a lot of good out of a big basket of fruit. A spittoon would come in handy when Gramps is looking for a place to deposit his chewed tobacco.

Now, friends, your Christmas shopping is almost done!

Most Rileyites Break Last Year's Resolutions

by Carol Brewer

Promises and more promises are being made about this time of year, and you know what for? What do you say we take a peek at last year's resolutions and see how successful your friends were in sticking to their word.

It seems that Dolly Burroughs vowed to brush her teeth twice every day, and decided to stay away from the car 'til her sixteenth birthday. Result: Now Dolly's sixteen — so "Motorists Beware."

Bonnie Silberman definitely said she wouldn't talk so much during classes. Result: Hmmm . . . well, better luck next year, Bonnie.

To be kinder to big brother "Snork" was none other than Terrey O'Neil's resolution. Result: I guess you'll simply have to ask Terry about that.

Susan BonDurant will never again tear up the house looking for hidden Christmas presents. Result: She'll have a surprise Christmas.

Lynn Orser and Denny Ritter resolved never again to make a New Year's Resolution. Result: Now the boys won't have to break a promise.

Rileyites Come to Rescue With Gift Suggestions

Here's a familiar problem that usually shows up around Christmas. What unusual, but inexpensive gift can you give to your friends.

Barbara Lenxowshi has the right spirit. She suggests stuffed wildcats for all your Riley friends.

Records are always good, especially when they are Elvis Presley records in-late Judy Barish, while Eddie Edstrom prefers Pat Boone.

Bob Kugbay suggests a pencil set, John Barbara thinks gift certificates are always good.

Gat Mayse and Patricia Walker like to give frightening mystery books to all their friends. (?)

Now here's an old standby, Bob Koloszar gives neckties. Jan Denslow loves to give the stuffed animals that fit on your dressing table, — the kind you hang jewelry on.

Lynda Frederick, a college minded senior, suggests scatter pillows for your room at college.

Bob Mahoney is giving all his friends prayer books this Christmas. Barbara Shaul thought and thought and finally came up with this useful suggestion: a Chinese rice bowl. (what?)

Nancy Jo Olinger thinks anything that's crazy and reminds your friends of you is the best.

Last but not least, Karol Lindeman gives Pizza Pies to all her favorite friends.

December Birthdays

by Max Mowbray

December, the month of cold winter days and snow, the month of gay parties, the preparing for the coming Holidays, and of course Christmas shopping to do. Another activity, as in any other month, are the birthdays. Here are some Rileyites wishes.

Evelyn Auer has a birthday on December 14. She is very puzzled and is just dying to know what her boyfriend got her for her birthday. (Won't be long now)

Tom Bloom had his birthday already. This big event took place Dec. 9, 1956. Tom received a very nice shirt from his girl friend, Pat Ludgate. He also received a watch. One thing Tom didn't get and he sure wishes he would have gotten was a new Studebaker Golden Hawk. (Well Tom, maybe if you are real good Santa will bring you one for Christmas.)

Eddie Sciamberg will be celebrating his birthday Dec. 30. His biggest wish is to get his beginner's driving permit. (Seems like everybody wants one of those these days!) He also would love to own a hi-fi.

Barbara Shaul is a 11-B and her big day is Dec. 21. Her big wish is one that many girls have, a big tall handsome Jeannette Pamachena thought it would be wise to work harder in school. Result: It's too bad she goofed the first week back to school. Cathie Schultheis promises to go to Nazareth College when high school is finished. Result: Her fingers are crossed.

Sue Rupert vowed to do her Christmas shopping in June. Result: Sue couldn't seem to get around to it in June . . . Maybe next year.

Jay Ritter planned to stay out later at night. Result: So far, so good.

Last year Barbara Shaul decided to be kinder to her big brother. Result: He wasn't very kind so certainly it would be unreasonable to think Barbara would treat him justly.

So long to last year's resolutions. Who is strong minded enough to keep it?

Hi Kids,

Here are some couples who will be seen together during Christmas: Judy Moore and Terry Heater (Ball State), Sharon Snyder and Al Vanderhayden, Rita Moore and Don Quimby (Indiana), Sandy Crutchfield and Don Baum (Adams Alumni), Joanne Lundberg and Jerry Williams (Adams), Shirley Gargis and Doug Burns, Diane Thornton and Larry Newman, Carol Elick and Jim Hylman (Adams), Sharon Baird and Roger Ovarmyer, Joyce Mammis and Denny Reinke, Susie Edstrom and Arden Purette (Mishawaka), Jane Guthrie and Bob Lewis (Mish.), Connie Lewis and Charles Slompaki (Central Alumni), Joanne Singleton and Lance Cox (Adams), Maureen Gilbert and Glen Weir, Carol Gilman and Jim Layman, Marilyn Truesdell and Butch Johnson.

Second hour has all the information on polio. Third hour has TB. Fifth hour — cancer, and sixth hour classes have information on home safety connected with Christmas trees and lights. If any home room wants information on these subjects contact health students or Mr. Parker.

guy! (You just keep on wishing, I've been doing it for years and no luck yet!)

Peggy Rendall is a 7-B at Riley and her birthday is Dec. 17. Her comment was, "all I want for my birthday is lots of lipstick and nail polish." (Of all things!) She remembers last year she got lots of money! (How lucky can we get?)

Judy Powell, a 9-B, has her birthday right before Christmas, Dec. 24. She is hoping very much to get a portable radio or television set for her present. (If you don't get it the 24th maybe you'll get it the 25th!)

Jackie Ray has already celebrated her birthday which was Dec. 4. Jackie is a 10-B and her biggest birthday present was a dinner dress. She wishes she would get a million dollars! (Who wouldn't!)

George Radanovich is a 10-B and will be celebrating his birthday after Christmas, the 27th of December. He is just dying to own a motorcycle or a car. (George is going Elvis Presley style, except for his four Cadillacs!)

May I wish a Happy Birthday to all the December born Rileyites and a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to everyone at Riley.

With our Christmas vacation beginning at 3:00 today, all sports activities will cease with the exception of the varsity holiday tournament on December 27-28 and the B-team tourney. Upon our return to school on January 7, 1956, sports will again become the center of attraction.

The schedule for the week following Christmas vacation is as follows:

- January 8—
Varsity basketball—Niles, H.
Frosh basketball—Adams, H.
- January 9—
Jr. Hi basketball—Central, H.
- January 10—
Frosh basketball—Laporte, T.
Swimming—Hammond, H.
- January 11—
Wrestling—Central, T.

KK

Returning to the past we find our Junior High facing Muesel last Tuesday and Lincoln last Wednesday to end their games until January 9. Last Tuesday the freshmen played Central in Riley's gym. See the bulletin on this page for the scores of these games.

Also in the past is intramural basketball which ended a week ago last Wednesday. Final standings are: All-Stars, 3-0; Magicians, 3-0; All-Americans, 2-1; Red-Devils, 1-2; Bagabones, 0-3; Comments, 0-3. Recreation basketball will begin again the week following Christmas vacation.

Now let's take a look at the present if that's possible. Everyone is in the Christmas spirit. Activities are running parallel and the past week has been one big whirlwind. Now it's Friday and teachers, coaches, custodians, and students are all looking forward to and making preparations for next Tuesday. And with that, I can see no better opportunity to wish you all a very MERRY CHRISTMAS from the entire Hi-Times staff.

Frosh Drop North Side In Conference Tilt; Face Adams Next

Visiting Riley last Thursday, Elkhart North Side met defeat at the hands of Coach Don Barnbrook's freshmen basketball team 33-27.

Scoring thirteen points during the first quarter, the Frosh set the score at 13-7 by the end of the first period. Trailing behind by one point in points gained during the second quarter the freshmen concluded the first half 20-15 in their favor.

Even less promising was the third period, during which the Frosh scored only two points against North Side's nine. This put them two points behind at the end of the third quarter. Very little scoring was done by North Side during the fourth quarter, but they continued to hold the lead throughout the

by Bob Lerman

The Jr. High five came out on the short end in two games against Jefferson and Elkhart North Side.

Riley visited the defending division champions, Jefferson, and lost 30-21. The game was tight most of the way before Jefferson pulled away from a 17-13 halftime lead to a 27-19 third period score. In the final quarter there were only five points scored, leaving the final score 30-21.

Riley played at home against Elkhart North Side and were whipped 56-38. As in the previous game, Riley held it close through the first half as their opponent steadily increased their lead to wind up with a misleading 56-38.

major part of the period. Then, the Frosh began to spark, scoring eleven points, holding Elkhart at three points, and wrapping up the game, 33-27.

Scoring for Riley was distributed fairly, with Bill Nelson and Tom Ellison scoring nine points apiece, Bill Toles and Bob Schmok eight and three points, respectively, and Lance Grieder and Leon Copeland two points apiece.

Clubs Hold Yule Parties Throughout the Week

by Karen Reid

This is the last paper now until the Christmas vacation is over so I am going to tell you a little about a few of the club parties that are going on around school.

GERMAN AND SPANISH CLUB

Christmas carols sung in German and Spanish were among the highlights at a recent Know Your Neighbor program. The carols were sung by members of the German and Spanish clubs. A supper was given for those that attended at the Y.W.C.A. Club members who sang were: Charles Stiles, Vince Ivarson, Bob Stewart, Marlene Wach, Erika Wagner, Jerry Renehart, Robert Rakist, Ellen Van De Walle, Donna Schroeder, Joleen Tedrow, Ann Amerpohl, Terry Mikel, Bernice Cooley and Maureen Sieron.

LATIN CLUB

A Christmas Musical will be held Wednesday, December 19, by the Riley Latin Club. Allen Singleton and Judy Horvath will play piano solos. Douglas Schwepler will give a reading. Several

French Club Gives Yule Dinner; French Style

The French Club Christmas Dinner was given at the home of Steve Barany on December 11th.

The food served included: onion soup served French style, French bread, salad, artichokes, vin rouge (French for "red wine" — actually punch), and the traditional log cake.

Members working on committees to prepare the meal were: Karen LaPekis, chairman of the soup committee; and her assistants, Shirley Lenyo, Lyn Rubins, Florence Burroughs, and Sharyl Wolvos.

Chairman of the bread committee was Suzan Clark. Her group included Jo Perry, Natalie Cowan, Karen King,

English Classes Visit Tudor Period By Way Of Elaborate Displays

by Lyn Porter

When the members of Mrs. Margaret Cassidy's English Literature classes step into class, they walk into the past, the Elizabethan Age, for this is the period they are now studying.

About a month ago, Mrs. Cassidy made the assignment that each student prepare a project that had something to do with the Tudor period. Since then, the students have been gathering all the required information for their project. The deadline for the projects was last Wednesday, and if you entered Room 100, your eyes would tell you that Mrs. Cassidy (and the students) are very proud of their projects, for on the tables and blackboards are the ingenious works of the literature classes.

Among the projects are: Shakespearean theatres, themes of the life of Elizabeth I and Henry VIII, genealogy of English kings and queens, Shakespeare's family tree, theme on the masques, songs of that age, and maps of old England. A member of the first hour class is giving a dinner for the members of the class, serving Elizabethan Age dishes.

If you wish to see these projects for yourself, drop in on Mrs. Cassidy and ask her if she would allow you to take a peek. They are really very interesting to see.

duets are to be given. Colleen Milliken and Ann Klosinski, violin; Florence Borroughs and Margie McPharlin, vocal and piano. Judy Newhard and Rebecca Newhard, piano; also a vocal solo by Janice Overmeyer. As a change of pace John Buchanan and Terry Fiedler on trumpets, Sara Anson and Eleanor Coffman will play a duet on the viola and violin.

LIBRARY CLUB

Monday, December 10, the Library Club had their annual tree trimming party. The first part of the evening was spent eating cookies, cupcakes, cakes and drinking cokes. They then started a new tradition of initiating the kids who haven't been in the club for more than a year. Some of them initiated are: Dennis Strickland, Jan Whitesker, and Fred Boyer. They had to do such things as go outside and get a snowball and make three people touch it. The party ended with the trimming of the tree.

Well that's all for this week. Merry Christmas to all of you and I hope you all have a nice vacation.

Janice Weiss, and Sue Ramsbey. Eleanor Coffman was in charge of the wine with her committee, Myrna Fisdale and Connie Gibbons.

Diane Bender was the chairman of the salad committee, and her assistants were Joyce Kopecki and Sara Anson. Jane Rosenquist was in charge of ordering the log cake and Phyllis Gosc prepared the artichokes. Judy Newhard was the chairman of the shopping committee. Her assistants were Miss Bertha Kiel, Jane Rosenquist, and Phyllis Gosc. Steve Barany made the necessary arrangements and Linda Austin chose the entertainment.

After the meal, a play was given, written in French by Phyllis Gosc. After which, Christmas Carols were sung in French.

Riley Beats Washington 40-38 In Exciting Game; Finished In Overtime

by Dave Lerman

In the first inter-city basketball clash this season, Riley's Wildcats came out with flying colors as they eked out a victory over Washington 40 to 38 in overtime. Buzz Wintrode dropped in a pair of free throws with six seconds left for the margin of victory, thus ending a four-game losing streak.

Using an attack that varied from fast-breaking to virtually standing still, Riley pulled out all the stops to win. Optimistically it may be pointed out that all Riley has to do to become city champs now is to beat Adams and Cenwhoops. Well, how about runner ups? Throughout the first period Washington dominated play and led 17 to 11. The Wildcats then surged back, taking over the backboards as well as the lead and led at intermission 26-23.

The third period might just as well have not been played. The thing most in evidence during this quarter were yawns. Under instructions to make the defense come out, Riley held the ball as the unwilling Panthers remained in the close vicinity of the basket. Each team tallied a free throw under the blistering pace. Milewski of the Westsiders tied the game up at 36-all with 29 seconds left with a long one-hander, sending the game into overtime. Dan Barnes was once again high point man with 13, while Wintrode followed with 11.

Meanwhile the B-team continued undefeated as they bowled over the Panther Bees 50 to 27. Extending their win streak to 6, the Riley Bees surged to a 41 to 16 halftime lead and coasted thru the second half. Phil Grundy led Riley with 11 points, George Vanderheyden getting 9 and Charlie Grundy 7. There is a B-team holiday tourney consisting of the four city schools scheduled for the holidays.

Grapplers Beaten 50-6; Win Only Two Contests; Floran Still Undefeated

Adams' Eagles visited the Riley wrestling squad and took home with them a 50-6 victory. The loss was the second in a row for Coach Steve Horvath's grapplers and gave them a 1-2 season record.

Arthur Floran, who wrestled in the 95-lb. weight division, won his third straight match by a decision to shoot Riley to a 3-0 lead. After that match it was Adams all the way, except when Arnie Goldberg captured a victory by decision.

RESULTS OF THE MEET

Floran won by decision.
Geraughty was pinned.
Riley forfeited in 112-lb. division.
Riley forfeited in 116-lb. division.
Klosinski was pinned.
Starrett was pinned.

Predictions By Coach, Starrett For Tourney; Pick Riley Over Niles

Predictions of Holiday Tourney and Niles game.

Because of the holiday activities, the Hi-Times is going to start a new attraction with this edition. From now on, every week, the Hi-Times is going to interview two figures prominent on the Riley basketball squad and find out their predictions on the more important games of the week.

To start things off, Coach Lennie Rzeszewski and starting forward Jerry Starrett have expressed their thoughts on the holiday tourney and the Riley-Niles contest January 8.

Coach Rzeszewski stated that the Wildcats ought to down Niles in a close contest. In the holiday tourney he picks Adams over Washington and Riley over St. Joseph's in the first round. In the consolation contest he sees St. Joseph's over Washington and rates the Riley-Adams tilt as a toss-up.

Starrett picks the Wildcats over Niles by ten points. For the tourney Jerry also predicts Adams over the Panthers and Riley over the Indians. However he sees Washington over St. Joseph's and Riley over Adams in the championship tilt.

Swimmers Beat Burris; Crack Four Records; Record For Year 2-1

Continuing their record smashing trend, Riley's State Champion swimmers broke four pool records and captured six of the nine first places in defeating Muncie Burris 45-32 for their second won in three starts.

Dave Fritz was the first to place in the Ball State College pool when he gave Riley a third in the 50-yd. Freestyle. Later Dave came up with a few new tricks and placed third in the Diving event. Freshman John Buchanan placed first and Dave Richards captured second in the 100-yd. Breaststroke. Tom Bloom broke the 200-yd. Freestyle record with a time of 2:11.1. John MacDonald placed third. Denny Floden claimed the second record of the day when he took first in the 100-yd. Backstroke with a time of 1:06.2. Second place was taken by Dave Hail. In the 100-yd. Freestyle, Terry Beyer and John Botkin placed first and second, respectively. John Odusch set another record in the 150-yd. Ind. Med., traveling the distance in 1:43.2. Riley's 200-yd. Med. Relay teams took first place and set the fourth pool record of the day. Relay team men were Hail, Richards, Buchanan, and MacDonald.

Miss Lauer Forms Yell Block

Getting ready before the Riley-Washington game is the Booster Club Yell block. Donned with reversible gloves the block provides some color during the contests. The girls, mostly seniors and juniors, help boost the basketball squad. The founder of this cheering section was Miss Mary Lauer. She spent many long hours in the forming of this "block" and many, many thanks should go to her.

Unbeaten Indians Riley Foe In Holiday Tourney Contest

by Jack Tully

Back on the winning trail! That's the good news for the Riley fans as the Wildcats get set for the rugged holiday tourney at Adams Gymnasium December 27 and 28. This tourney will find rugged St. Joseph's, Adams, and Washington, besides our Riley five.

The kick-off contest at seven o'clock will find the Adams Eagles meeting the Washington Panthers. Adams has had the rougher schedule but this contest ought to be a thriller. Starting for the Panthers will be Arvester Brooks and Henry Davis at forwards, Alfred Ross at center, Dave Williams and Dick Milewski at guards. The Eagles will counter with Ken Marvel and Gene Phillips at forwards, Roland Davis at center, and Wesley Rachaels and Bud McKnight at guards.

In the Thursday night finale will find the Riley quintet meeting the St. Joseph's Indians. St. Joseph's is undefeated thus far and is one of the taller squads in this area. They have been paced by 6'5" junior center Mike Wroblewski who is averaging better than 20 points per game. Also starting for the Indians will be Mike Eger and Fritz Fischer at forwards and Kevin Weinberg and Rick Hafron at guards.

Coach Stewart's squad for the tourney will probably find Dave Gunn and Jerry Starrett or John South at forwards, Buzz Wintrode at center, and Dan Barnes and Jim Ulrich or Denny Reinke at guards. The reserves this season have been Ron Evard, Tom Paholski, Don Katona, Jack Horvath and Dave Kramer.

The two first round losers will meet in the first game Friday night for the third place with the two winners battling for the championship in the second contest.

In the first game of the B team tourney Washington faces Adams and Riley will meet St. Joseph's. The first contest will start at 9:00 A. M.

Losers will meet in the consolation tilt at 1:15 P. M. in the afternoon with the championship contest following immediately.

This tourney will be held December 28 in the Adams gymnasium.
