Two New Teachers Join JHS Faculty

A shift in faculty assignments in the South Bend Community School Corporation this week resulted in Mr. Dale Rems' taking the classes of Miss Nancy Barr and a new math teacher, Mr. Lloyd Conrad, being assigned to Mr. Rems' classes.

Mr. David Dunlap, formerly at Lincoln School, is teaching sociology and economics. A graduate of South Bend Central and Indiana University, he is married and has one child.

Mr. Conrad has been teaching math at Muesel Junior High School and is a member of the SBCSC math coordinating committee. He has taught modern math to adults at various schools and is now conducting other math classes at Bethel College.

Miss Barr and Mr. William Moyer, who taught sociology and economics here for one week, are now assigned to other South Bend schools.

National Merit Tests Set

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying tests will be given at Jackson on Feb. 25 for juniors who wish to compete. Opportunity will be given to sign up in home room next week with the payment of $1.50 fee. Test scores will be returned in May, and names of semifinalists will be announced next fall.

Jackson Considers Party Politics In Next Student Council Election

By Jack Rasmussen,

Student Council Election Chairman

If the Student Council Senate votes in its favor, Jackson's next Student Council election, to be held this coming April, will be based on the Party System. According to planning by the Council's present leadership and the advisor, Mr. Thomas Hoyer, parties may establish themselves by fulfilling the following regulations:

1. State party name—(Old Hickory, United Students, Student Quality)

2. State purpose of party

3. List names and homerooms of four candidates for office, who must have at least a "C" average for this school year so far. Candidates for president and vice-president must be juniors this year, and candidates for secretary and treasurer may be taken from this year's Sophomore Class.

4. Register this information with the Student Council sponsor by 3:30 p.m. Feb. 24 on a sheet of paper signed by a minimum of 50 petitioners.

A PARTY MAY originate when a potential candidate chooses a campaign manager. The two look through the student body for likely candidates for the other three offices. A "likely" candidate is one who can pull in votes because of some particular quality.

When the officers have been selected and have indicated willing-

Four Orchestra Members Win Firsts in Contest

In the string division of the city instrumental contest last weekend top honors were won by four Jackson orchestra students.

Receiving a first place in group one and therefore eligible to go to the state contest at Butler University on Feb. 18 in Indianapolis is Ann Miller, piano soloist. Other firsts were won by Virginia Colton, with a perfect score for her viola solo, and Lynn Dickerson and Terri Thoner, piano solos.

Jacksonites receiving second place ratings were Betsy DeCroes and Ken Hayward, cello solos, and Kim Brehmer, Carol Molnar, and Natalie Wheeler, piano solos. Virginia Colton also received a second place on her piano solo and Mark Bone on a violin duet.

Under the direction of Mr. Dean Bentle, the six Jackson string players received a second place rating.

Clubs? Why Bother?

Jackson High School is fortunate enough to have a string of clubs open to any Jackson student. From Audio-Visual to Les Amis Francais, these clubs are organized to give pupils in a certain field a chance to meet others with the same interest. But are these clubs proving successful?

The main purpose of high school clubs is not just to take a trip to Chicago or get a picture in the yearbook, but to serve and better the school and community. Since Christmas vacation, the number of club meetings has gone down. Could it possibly be that members came just long enough to get in on the Christmas parties, and then dropped out.

The Audio-Visual and Library Clubs help teachers and students each day; "Teachers of the Future" give up one night a week to tutor children; and the Drama Club begins production on one play as soon as another is over. But what about all the others — the language, occupational, and service clubs?

How can an organization accomplish anything if its members do not care about it and do not even bother to come to any meetings? Surely there is enough student leadership and originality at Jackson to get clubs rolling toward worthwhile goals. If not, of what use are high school clubs?

ness to accept the responsibilities of the office, the next step usually taken by the newly-activated party is to locate people in each class who are "movers and shakers," individuals who can gather in votes at their respective grade levels, and invite them to join the organization as vote getters. The party is now ready to get to work.

The selection of the party name is important as it should reflect school patriotism or some virtue which would tie in with the basic philosophy of the Party.

The Party's Statement of Purpose is an announcement of objectives. Because development of a party platform will come later, the statement of the purpose of the party need not be detailed.

It is the responsibility of party members who obtain signatures to be sure that the signature they have obtained will not also be found on other petitions. A signature promises an individual will support the party with his vote.

After the party has formally registered, the inner group begins planning strategy. The Platform must be constructive and at the same time appeal to as many voter groups as possible. It should also be possible of achievement. A successful party is one which is able to succeed itself in office because it has lived up to its promises.

The campaign manager and his officership must raise money for the publicity campaign. The funds raised for this purpose must be raised outside of school. The week of April 17-21 will be spent in active campaigning by all parties. This is the only week during which posters can be placed in the school or other party gimmicks can be handed out to the student body.

Survey Shows 'Monkees, Yes; Batman, No'

By Kathy Thornton

"How many hours of television do you watch daily" was the first question posed by a TV survey circulated in home rooms last week.

Michelle Zelones and Terri Thoner, freshmen, agreed as they said "One hour if we are lucky!" More avid television viewers, freshman Richard Samuels and sophomores Carol Morris and Maureen McGrath, spend six to twelve hours watching television. Freshman Sara York exclaimed enthusiastically, "24 hours - if possible!!"

The second question put to TV viewers was "In your opinion what is the best program on television?" The most popular answer was set forth by sophomores Marsha Mullin and Jane Banicki, who are crazy about the Monkees. The second most popular show seemed to be I SPY according to freshman Marcia

West and sophomores Jan Kennedy and Sue Umbaugh.

Senior Roberta Ford and Freshman Karen Masselink felt that soap operas were the worst programs on TV. A majority of the students, including Babette Wald and Marianne Van Acker, sophomores, and Dave Mies, senior, dislike programs such as Batman, Captain Nice and Mr. Terrific.

What kind of program would you like to see more of on TV? Michael Wilson, Jenny Yelton, Patrick Priester and many others felt there should be more adventure programs. Mrs. Barbara Connolly would like more Hallmark series and all around good drama to be seen on TV.

Favorite commercial seemed to be Benson Hedges, featuring the long cigarette and its complications. In second place was the

Is It True Hazlitts' Model A Runs? Yes, Even After 20 Inches of Snow

Twenty inches of snow can be discouraging to many car owners, but junior Becky Hazlitt and her trosh brother Scott are oblivious to the drifts as their 1931 Model A Ford, Petula, "always gets them through."

The Hazlitts acquired the black deluxe, 4-door sedan in July of 1966. After a major engine overhaul, sputtering halts in the middle of highways, countless repairs followed by more disappointing failures, Petula finally could be driven to school.

However, Petula was not without her faults. Every time Becky switched to first gear, she popped the clutch, then promptly hit the horn, giving a jerk-beep-jerk-beep effect as she drove.

Petula's manual brakes required stomping them to the floor for a complete stop. Also, the driver's window would not budge unless pulled up and down with both hands.

BECKY AND PETULA

Rainy days posed another problem, as Petula was not equipped with windshield wipers.

In spite of these difficulties, Becky and Scott claim they enjoy their car, and as Becky says, "It's fun to pick up my friends with an 'ah-ooo-gah' at their front door."

The recommended poster size is 16" by 22", but size will not disqualify any entry. Only one poster may be submitted by each student. Inks, oils, cut-outs, and water colors may be used on the poster, but if the double-barred cross is used, it must be colored or outlined in red.

The name, school, grade, and home address of the artist should be on the back of each poster. The entries are due on or before Monday, March 6, 1967 at the Tuberculosis League. Posters are judged on their lettering, composition, legibility, correct facts, color, and impact of message.

Kulik Wins First In Mat Sectional

By Mike Hostetler

Tim Kulik became the first wrestler in the history of Jackson to take a first place in an I H S A A Wrestling Sectional Tournament. Kulik, a junior, won the 183-pound weight class crown on Feb. 4 in sectional competition at Adams High School.

Tim won three matches in the tournament. After eliminating the Adams contestant in the morning round, Kulik decisioned first-seeded Al Waters of Washington four to one in the afternoon session.

In a thrilling final match Tim beat third-seeded Tony Sims of LaSalle four to three. Kulik was seeded fourth at the beginning of the tournament. He will represent Jackson in the Regional Tournament tomorrow in East Chicago.

Also placing for Jackson was Kim Stickley who took third place in the 168-pound weight division. Kim won two matches, lost one, and received one forfeit in sectional competition.

Jackson scored 20 team points to finish eighth in a field of ten schools. Washington won an upset victory in the Sectional by edging out Central 98-96. Central qualified eight wrestlers for the finals but was unable to win a single championship.

Cagers Beat Argos, Lose to CMA; B-team Wins Bring Record to 12-4

Last Friday night Jackson smashed Argos by a score of 74 to 59. The game could have been closer but mistakes by Argos helped the Tigers on to their third victory. A balanced scoring attack was led by Jerry Tetzlaff who had 22 points.

Also scoring in double figures were Craig Marten, Terry Arme, and Bill T'Kindt who had 16, 15 and 15 points respectively. The B-team also won by a score of 58 to 25. Mark Sickmiller and John Hummer had 18 and 10 points respectively.

Last Saturday the Tigers fell to a rough Culver Military Academy team by a score of 76 to 62. Terry Arme and Bob McKelvey had 17 points apiece to lead the Tiger attack. The B-team kept their winning ways by beating an extremely tall Culver team 56 to 34. This win raised their record to 12 and 4.

Tonight the Tigers meet the Central Bears. Central's record is 10 and 7. Their latest victory was over Lebanon by a score of 61 to 57. The North Liberty game has been rescheduled for tomorrow night. The Basketball Queen and Court will be crowned.

On Feb. 14 Jackson will play Adams on the Eagles' court. Adams, who has won 12 of 17 this year, is led by Phil Willford, Bob Storm, John Kaiser, and Kent Ross.

The following night Jackson journeys to Penn for a game that has been postponed twice.
