

Seven Jr. Girls Named to Court

Bonnie Gates, Pam Talcott, Lauren Whisler, Debbie Gordon, Cathy Heller, Vickie Arch, and Cindy Ward were elected to the court of the Junior Class Prom "Reflections in Blue."

Each junior homeroom nominated three girls for the honor. The top seventeen were placed on the ballot with a selection of the top seven as members of the court.

The court member with the highest number of votes of the seven will be announced the night of the prom April 15. Tickets went on sale this week.

Register for Voting Right After Vacation

The privilege of a citizen is the freedom to vote, and Jacksonites' votes' on April 19 or 20 will determine who will lead the Student Council next year.

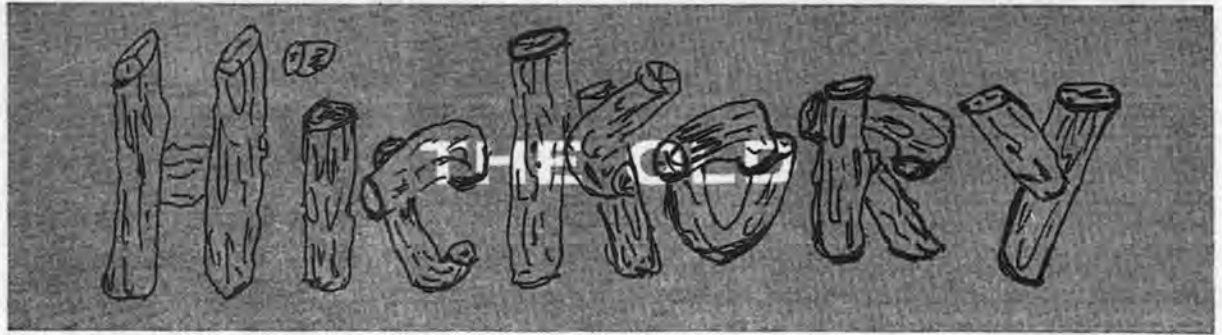

In order to vote, a student must pay a one-cent poll tax during registration week, April 10-14. The pupil must pay the money individually to his homeroom senator. The senator will record names on a master registration sheet for voting day.

Those who do not register that week will lose their votes in the elections. Students absent during the entire week may register Monday or Tuesday of the next week with Mr. Thomas Hoyer, room 218. They must bring proof of absence. The poll tax will defray the cost of the voting machine.

Political parties have been busy during the past few weeks on money-making projects to finance their campaigns. The Jackson Minutemen, led by Jim Powell, will be selling candy during the next few weeks. The United Students, led by Eric Heller, held a bake sale March 4, and will have a car wash tomorrow at Jim's Shell Station, Ireland and Miami.

Seniors Trip To Include Tour of UN, Wax Museum

"What are you going to take?" "Hey, don't forget to bring some stuff to eat." "How much money are you bringing?" These and many others are familiar questions to Jackson seniors. This is a big weekend for those who are going on Jackson's first senior trip.

Seniors will depart either Monday morning or Sunday afternoon, depending on which method of transportation they are taking, the Forlow Bus tour or the airplane tour. The bus tour will last for six days and the plane tour, for four days.

From South Bend, the seniors will go to New York. They will stay there for two days, and then go on to Washington, D. C. Those taking the bus will spend one extra day in Philadelphia, and one day in Gettysburg.

Highlights in New York will be tours of Greenwich Village, Chinatown, Wall Street, Rockefeller Center, the Empire State Building, Statue of Liberty, and the United Nations.

In Washington, students will be observing the Smithsonian Institution, the Wax Museum, Arlington Cemetery, the F.B.I., and the White House.

Additional embellishments are a 1 a. m. curfew, a moonlight boat ride cruise on the Potomac River (for the bus tour only), a floor show, a movie at Radio City Music Hall, and a true "night on the town" in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Ell and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Katterheinrich will accompany the seniors.

Sophomores again led the JHS honor roll for the fourth grading period with 80 students meeting the requirement of 14 or more points, no more than 1 C, and no D's or F's. The freshman class ranked second with 71 honor students, followed by the junior class with 66, and the seniors with 27.

FRESHMEN on the honor roll are:

20 points—Linda Spalding, Peter Ogden, Sue Lehner, Stan Kohnr, Ginny Colten, and Kathy Bella.

19 points—Kathy Thornton, Dan Stump, Kathy Streed, Deborah Lytle, Betsy DeCroes, Kyle Crofoot, Barbara Baker, and Mike Adams.

18 points—Cindy Streich, Joann Scott, Betty Reece, Andrea Pearson, Karen Midla, Ceal Kohen, Doug Jahnke, Linda Grossnickle, Janet Cooper, and Bonita Bastock.

16 points—Bill Witt, Rosemarie White, Debby Stoeckinger, Bruce Stevens, Craig Moore, Tina Jones, Gordon Hornbaker, Holly Heemstra, Karen Burkhart, Jeff Bayman, and Dale Anderson.

15 points—Shelley Wiley, Chris Widener, Dortha Sharp, Greg Nall, David Mitchell, Craig Juday, Vicky Hughes, Mary Goodspeed, Doug Callantine, Sharon Buckner, and Kathy Breza.

14 points—Terri Thoner, Greg Shroff, Joyce Potts, Jane Morris, Kathy McCarthy, Madge Marshall, Marilyn LaFree, Teresa Kubley, Tom Griffin, and Greg Drover.

22 points—Roger Tolle.

21 points—Karen MacQuivey.

20 points—Paul Zisla, Sue Umbaugh, Nancy Nuner, Jan Kennedy, Lynn Dickerson, and Bonnie Damon.

19 points—Scott Shafer, Carol Schaal, Sue Ryon, D'Anne Nelson, Greg French, Mike Dake, and Wendy Brown.

18 points—Cheryl Vanderhagen, Bryce Stevens, Pam Richardson, Barb Pollyea, Bob Mrofska, Janice

AFS for JHS!

AFS for JHS! Tiger spirit is evident again. Although the results of the drive are not yet tabulated, congratulations are due the enthusiastic supporters who have made this a successful venture. The UJO (or "Blob"), all the "uglies," and their campaign managers helped to provide an atmosphere of competition. With car washes, slave auctions, and bake sales, the Juniors lead the classes, since the two homerooms with the most money will host the AFS students next year.

Help Wanted: UFO Watch

Due to the numerous reports by area residents of mysterious unidentified flying objects in the vicinity of Jackson, the Student Council has organized a 24-hour watch for these objects. Latest findings indicate that the vehicles in question are spherical structures, measuring approximately 100 feet in diameter and dotted with oblong windows. These UFO's have flashing red and green lights and make a loud sonic boom upon landing and take-off.

The last sighting was a UFO which landed on the football field. Several creatures were seen departing from and entering the ship. Student help is needed in the lookout, and all those interested in participating should meet at 10 a. m. tomorrow, April 1, in the observatory on the fourth floor. It is believed that an exchange program similar to AFS can be set up.

Still a Mystery

LURKING underneath this black bag, otherwise known as "The Blob," is a member of the Jackson population. "The Blob" declares himself an Ugly Boy hater, and is collecting money for the AFS drive.

Four Student Teachers From Purdue Join Staff

Four new student teachers from Purdue have joined the Jackson staff for six weeks. Majoring in English are Miss Helen Lynn Fritz and Miss Rebecca Williams, graduates from Mishawaka High and Reitz High of Evansville, respectively. Miss Fritz is a student teacher for Mrs. Lois Claus, and Miss Williams is aiding Mr. William Madden. Both girls are staying in the home of Miss Fritz.

Miss Sharon Katterheinrich is teaching with Mrs. Joanne Bendall in the home economics department. A graduate of Penn High School, she is staying at home in Osceola. Miss Carol Gebhardt, a graduate of Adams, is majoring in Speech Therapy and Hearing. She is aiding Mrs. Susan Vorwerk, speech therapist. Miss Gebhardt is staying in her South Bend home.

REPORTERS GO VISITING

Two Jacksonites Give Impressions of Riley and LaSalle

Since Jackson did not participate in school visitation exchange this year, the Old Hickory sent reporters to two schools on March 23 in order that the whole student body might share their impressions.

—Editor.

By Jane Simmons

Entering James Whitcomb Riley High School for the first time since the end of my freshman year, I expected a few changes to have taken place. Bright, modern hallways with lowered ceilings and new lighting was the first change I noticed. The second change was soon coming — no office! After a 15-minute freshmanly bewilderment I found the office on the second floor, completely remodeled.

NORMALLY THE DAY BEGINS at 7:10 for Glee Club and some shops with the first hour starting at 8:05 a. m. followed by a 35-minute homeroom. There is time for club or committee meetings. The rest of the day falls into hour classes from second to seventh, omitting fourth hour in name only.

Conflict with closed lunch hour tainted Riley's reputation last year. This year in the new cafeteria on the first floor the situation has been organized by division into five 35-minute lunch hours. The people in lunch hour are divided into three sections alternating for first position in line every week.

Club activities flourish at Riley with everything from Boosters to Chess Club. One of the newer clubs is the "Synchronettes" for water ballet. The Student Council is remodeling its constitution. The Physics Club is currently raising funds for a proposed trip to California to launch a rocket that the club built.

Riley's atmosphere is generally one of fun and friendliness in passing to classes. Wildcat students attribute the bustle in the halls to the limited time for passing from a class that might be in the basement locker room to another on the third floor.

A FIRE DRILL was held during the day to disrupt a routine sixth hour. Moans came from the trig class I was attending. The class later told me they had also had one last week when the alarm box fell off the wall. Bells rang for the signal of the end of class, somewhat irritating after a year and a half of silent lights!

All Wildcats take a certain pride in their school and show it whether exploring the library, reading the last English story "Noon Wine," or decorating lockers with stick figures, pictures, and candy. Rileyites are proud of their scholastics, extracurriculars, and the building itself.

By Sue Ryon

Imagine walking down a hall that looks exactly like one in your own school, but filled with unfamiliar faces! This is what I experienced while spending a day at Jackson's "sister school," LaSalle. However similar the two buildings may be, a day at LaSalle is not a day at Jackson.

THE FIRST DIFFERENCE is in the surroundings of the two schools. Whereas Jackson is situated in the open, LaSalle has houses on all four sides of the building. Also, the charcoal brick used on the outside and for some of the walls at Jackson is replaced by brown brick at LaSalle.

As at Jackson, everyone walks in circles in the halls before classes start. Another difference — classes start at 8:05 a. m. as compared to Jackson's 8:20. LaSalle's enrollment is between 1500 and 1600, so more people are in the halls in the morning. The school buses so abundant at Jackson are not so much in evidence at the sister school.

INSTEAD OF GOING to homeroom before first hour, LaSalle students attend first hour class until 9 a. m., then have a half hour homeroom period until 9:35. During this period, newspaper staffers attend a special homeroom in a room underneath the stage. Another very big difference occurs in LaSalle homerooms — brace yourselves, Jacksonites — they have both boys and girls in the same homeroom!

For the rest of the day, Jackson and LaSalle follow the same time schedule. The light system was rather confusing, as their yellow light, meaning two minutes left in the period, is on the right side, and the red light is on the left.

BOYS AND GIRLS are not segregated in study halls, and students are not spaced a certain number of seats apart. Hall monitors are on duty at all times.

The library at LaSalle is similar to the one at Jackson, except in the number and arrangement of the tables. Smaller tables are used there, and more of them.

LaSalle has three lunch hours, like Jackson. But the most surprising thing was seeing many people dash to their lockers before lunch, grab their coats, and run out the doors. And so I discovered a major difference between the two schools: LaSalle has open lunch hour.

ON THE WAY BACK from the cafeteria, I noticed that all of the showcases in the halls are filled. Prominently displayed by the gym are the two traveling trophies (the wagon wheel and the cannon) from Jackson-LaSalle athletic contests.

But impressing me most about LaSalle was the courtesy shown by everybody I met. In a World History class I attended, the boy sitting next to me introduced himself and shook my hand, making me feel really welcome. A boy in a Latin II class wrote a sarcastic paper about his class for the benefit of the "guest." Friendliness permeates LaSalle.

Caps and Gowns Fitted April 11

First event on the calendar for Senior class events is cap and gown fitting on April 11. The charge for purchasing a cap is $3.90.

May 26 has been designated as Cap and Gown day. Also at this time there will be an Awards assembly, and Senior pictures will be taken.

Baccalaureate is set for June 4 at approximately 3 p.m. On the same day at 4 p.m. a reception will be held for seniors, parents and teachers.

Graduation will take place on June 6 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. For this occasion each senior will receive two tickets. It has also been announced that all seniors MUST be present June 4 from 9-11 a.m. for graduation practice.

Jackson, Riley Latin Clubs Plan Joint Roman Banquet

The Latin Clubs of Riley and Jackson High Schools are planning a Roman Banquet on April 14 at the Southside Church of God. The banquet will resemble an authentic Roman banquet, complete with togas.

The food served will be of Roman origin made by the Latin students. The menu includes chicken, bread, olives, grape juice, cheese, eggs, fresh fruit, and grapes.

Staff Appreciation Day

To show students' gratitude for behind-the-scenes work of custodial and cafeteria help, today has been designated "Staff Appreciation Day" by the Student Council.

Under the direction of Co-chairmen Medarda Chizar and Nancy Nuner, corsages have been purchased for the ladies in the cafeteria and a coffee hour has been planned for all the staff Monday, April 3.

On the part of the students, greetings, smiles, pats on the back, and friendly nods were appropriate thanks today for the spotless halls and hot lunches we have come to take for granted.

Plenty of Action Next Two Weeks

Provided the weather is right, both the track team and the baseball team will see action during spring vacation. The Tiger nine is scheduled to open its season at 1 p.m. Friday, April 7, against Riley on the new Jackson diamond.

The trackmen, who competed Wednesday in the Notre Dame Invitational meet, will go against Rolling Prairie there next Tuesday. Their home season starts Monday, April 10, with Bremen as opponent. The following afternoon the Tigers will host LaVillie and on April 13, Concord.

The baseball team will be just as busy if games go as scheduled. They travel to Washington April 10, host Penn on April 11 and Adams on April 14. All these games are set for 4 p.m.

Girls' Swim Team Beats Riley Twice

By Cindy Gerard

Winning the two swimming meets against Riley, March 23 and 28, by a score of 61-16 and 56-20, the Jackson girls are hoping to win the City Meet next month.

Barb Ettl and Quincy Erickson were double winners in the Riley meet on March 23. Barb won the 100 individual medley with 1:15.7 and was in the 200 medley relay. Quincy took the 100 free with 1:03.4 and the 50 fly with 33.9. Pam Seaborg took first in 50 free and second in the 100 free.

Cindy Gerard placed first in diving, followed by Becky Avrett and Cindy Schosker. The 200 medley relay of Debbie Stoekinger, Cindy Gerard, Barb Ettl, and Tina Jones placed first with 2:18, and the 200 free relay of Sue Miller, Lynn Goltz, Kathy Witt, and Betty Reece placed first with a 2:09.

Other swimmers who did well were Sue Berebitsky, third in 100 free and 50 free; Debbie Stoekinger, third in 100 individual medley and second in 50 backstroke; Becky Avrett, second in 50 free; Tina Jones, third in 50 back; Liz Allen, second in 50 breast; and Pam Parsons, third in 50 breast.

Parrish Participates In All Season Sports

Dennis Parrish, a 6' 1" 182-pound junior, is one of the pitchers on Jackson's baseball team. Last year he had a record of 5 wins and 3 losses. Dennis throws a variety of pitches which include a fast ball, curve ball, drop ball, change up, and knuckle ball.

Confident that the team will improve on its 11-9 record of last year, Dennis hopes to play in the state finals at Victory Field in Indianapolis. Football, basketball, and baseball are the sports he participates in, but he prefers baseball because he would like to be a professional baseball player.

He plans to go to college. When asked if he thought sports had a bad effect on grades, Dennis replied, "it all depends on what a person does during his spare time."

Volleyball Team Loses

The Girls' Volleyball Team was defeated by Marian 15-6 in both games last Tuesday. Losing to Riley the week before (15-11) and (15-3), the girls have Washington and North Liberty yet to play with a tournament climaxing the season. All games are played at Riley beginning at 4 p.m.
